corporation or association, and lend or provide money for the purpose of any such issue;

- (q) to issue electronic transfers and to grant and issue Letters of Credit;
 - (r) to purchase and sell treasury bills and securities of or guaranteed by the Government and such other governments or international financial institutions as may be specified by the Board;
 - (s) to purchase and sell foreign currencies and foreign bills of exchange;
 - (t) to borrow money for the purpose of conducting the Bank's business and in the exercise of its borrowing powers, the Bank may issue debentures or bonds on such terms and conditions as the Board determines;
 - (u) to undertake on behalf of customers and correspondents the purchase, sale, collection and payment of money, securities and credit instruments;
 - (v) to enter into contracts of such kinds as the Board may determine including contracts of indemnity, suretyship or guarantee;
 - (w) to do such things as are incidental or conducive to the performance of the foregoing functions.
- (2) In the exercise of its functions under this section, the Board shall not authorise any advance, loan or overdraft facility directly or indirectly upon the security of any shares in the Bank
- (a) to a director or his spouse;
 - (b) to any individual, firm or company in which a director or his spouse is a partner, director, officer, or managing agent;
 - (c) to any individual, firm or company in any case where a director or his spouse is a guarantor;
 - (d) to any other related party; or

- (e) to any political party, organisation or association or to an individual for political purposes.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the word “related party” means
- (a) the holding companies, financial holding companies, subsidiaries or affiliates of the Bank and the directors and senior officers of such companies;
 - (b) any person that the Bank exerts control over or that exerts control over the Bank;
 - (c) any person who holds more than 20 per cent of the Bank's shares;
 - (d) an entity in which the Bank owns at least 20 per cent of the shares;
 - (e) a director or senior officer of the Bank;
 - (f) an immediate relative of a director or senior officer of the Bank or immediate relative of a director or senior officer of a holding company, a financial holding company, a subsidiary or an affiliate of the Bank;
 - (g) any firm which is controlled by a director or senior officer of the Bank or controlled by an immediate relative of a director or senior officer of the Bank;
 - (h) any person, firm or corporation, where the credit facilities of that person, firm or corporation are guaranteed by a director or senior officer of the Bank or guaranteed by an immediate relative of a director or senior officer of the Bank; or
 - (i) any other similar person or group of persons determined by the Central Bank.
- (4) Where the Board decides to make a grant, loan, advance or other forms of financing available to a related party, the Board shall apply the provisions of section 21 of the Financial Institutions Act, Cap. 324A.

Restrictions on business activities

8.(1) The Bank shall offer wholesale banking services only to other banks and financial institutions, Government agencies, real estate developers and similar enterprises as the Bank may determine.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the Bank

(a) shall not directly or indirectly incur exposures to one person or group so that

(i) the total value of such exposures at any time exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base of the Bank;

(ii) where a portion of the exposures referred to in subparagraph (i) is unsecured credit facilities, that portion exceeds 10 per cent of the capital base of the Bank;

(b) shall not directly or indirectly incur any large exposure to a person or a group where by so doing the aggregate amount of all such large exposures would exceed 800 per cent of the capital base or such other limit as the Central Bank determines;

(c) shall not incur exposures to a related party

(i) on terms and conditions more favourable than the terms and conditions generally applicable to borrowers;

(ii) so that the total value of such exposures at any time exceeds 10 per cent of the capital base of the Bank;

(iii) so that the aggregate amount of such exposures referred to in subparagraph (ii) exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base;

except that an equity investment in a wholly owned subsidiary that is a financial institution shall not be taken into account in the determination of an exposure;

- (d) shall not grant unsecured credit facilities of an aggregate amount in excess of $40 000 or one per cent of the capital base of the Bank, whichever is the greater or give any financial guarantee in excess of such amount without security, or incur any other liability in excess of that amount without security
 - (i) to or on behalf of any of its directors whether or not such credit facilities, financial guarantees or liabilities are obtained by or on account of the directors jointly or severally;
 - (ii) to or on behalf of any person in whom it or any of its directors is interested as a director, partner, manager or agent or as guarantor; or
 - (iii) to its holding company, its financial holding company, any subsidiary, an affiliate or to any of its directors;
- (e) shall not grant to its officers or employees unsecured advances or unsecured credit which exceed in aggregate for any one officer or employee, one year's emoluments of that officer or employee; and
- (f) shall not
 - (i) acquire, deal in or underwrite its own shares or the shares of its holding company or its financial holding company; or
 - (ii) grant any credit facility secured by its own shares or the shares of its holding company or its financial holding company or the shares of a subsidiary of the Bank.
- (3) The provisions of subsection (2)(a) shall not apply to
 - (a) any financial exposures to the Government, statutory corporation or any other person where repayment is guaranteed by the Government;
 - (b) transactions in respect of which the portion thereof in excess of 25 per cent of the capital base of the Bank is fully supported by collateral in the form of cash deposits or securities issued by the Government; or

- (c) exposures in such other form as the Central Bank may determine.

Board

- 9.(1) There shall be a Board of Directors of the Bank which shall be responsible for the policy and general administration of the Bank, including the appointment and management of staff and the efficient management of resources and contracts of the Bank.
- (2) The Board shall meet as often as the business of the Bank requires, but not less frequently than once every quarter.
- (3) The Schedule applies with respect to the appointment, constitution and functioning of the Board and otherwise in relation thereto.

Delegation of functions

- 10.(1) The Board may delegate to the Chairman, a committee of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer, such of its functions as it thinks expedient for the purpose of effectively transacting the business of the Board.
- (2) The delegation of a function pursuant to section (1)
 - (a) does not prevent the Board from discharging that function; and
 - (b) may at any time be revoked by the Board.

Conflict of interest

- 11.(1) A director who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Bank or any other matter with which the Bank is concerned, shall declare the nature and extent of his interest at the first meeting of the Board at which it is practicable for him to do so.
- (2) A director shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Board in respect of any contract or proposed contract with the Board or any other matter with which the Board is concerned, in which he has any pecuniary interest, whether directly or indirectly.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a director shall be treated as having an indirect interest in a contract or proposed contract with the Board or in any other matter with which the Board is concerned if he is

- (a) a director;
- (b) a shareholder;
- (c) a partner;
- (d) an employee; or
- (e) a fee-earning consultant

of a company or other association of persons that is a party to such other matter with which the Bank is concerned.

(4) A director mentioned in subsections (1), (2) and (3) shall not vote on a contract or proposed contract to that with which the Bank is concerned.

(5) A director and any employee of the Bank shall not accept a gift or an advantage for himself or on behalf of persons with whom they have family, business or financial connections, if the acceptance might result or give the appearance of resulting in a diminution of the impartial performance of his duties.

(6) Where a person to whom this section applies contravenes this section, he is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $50 000 or to imprisonment for 3 years or both.

Immunity

12.(1) No legal proceedings shall be brought or instituted personally against any director in respect of any act done in good faith in the performance or execution or intended execution of his functions under this Act.

(2) Where a director of the Board is exempt from liability by reason only of subsection (1), the Bank is liable to the extent that it would have been had the director been an employee or agent of the Bank.

Chief Executive Officer

13.(1) Subject to the approval of the Central Bank and the Financial Services Commission, there shall be a Chief Executive Officer of the Bank.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions in any contract between the Bank and the CEO, the CEO shall also be responsible for

- (a) the day-to-day administration of the Bank;
- (b) ensuring that decisions and policies of the Board are carried out;
- (c) managing the assets and liabilities of the Bank in accordance with the law;
- (d) accounting for and reporting in a timely manner on all monies and property received by or under the control of the Bank;
- (e) doing all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of his duties.

(3) The CEO shall receive such remuneration and allowances as the Board determines.

(4) The CEO shall be an ex officio member of the Board.

(5) The CEO may resign his appointment by giving the Chairman of the Board written notice of his resignation in accordance with the terms of his contract of employment.

Staff

14.(1) The Bank may employ such staff as it considers necessary for performing its functions and exercising its powers.

(2) An employee shall be employed on such terms and conditions as the Board determines in writing.

Employment of public officers

15.(1) Where a public officer accepts employment with the Bank he shall be employed on terms and conditions no less favourable than those to which he was entitled before the commencement of this Act.

(2) Where a public officer is seconded or temporarily transferred from a pensionable office within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Pensions Act, Cap. 25 to perform any service with the Bank, his service with the Bank shall, unless the President otherwise decides, count for pension under that Act as if the officer had not been so seconded or transferred.

(3) Where the services of a person employed by the Bank are on loan to the Government that person is entitled to such benefits and terms of employment as are applicable to the post which he occupies, and the service with the Bank shall be taken into account as continuous service with the Government and the Pensions Act and the Pensions Regulations, 1947 (1947/20) shall apply to him as if his service with the Bank were service within the meaning of that Act.

(4) Where a public officer is transferred to the service of the Bank in accordance with subsection (3), the Bank shall refund to the Consolidated Fund all moneys payable as pension in respect of the service of that officer with the Bank.

(5) Where a public officer who has pensionable service is transferred to or becomes employed in the service of the Bank, his service with the Bank shall, whether or not there was a break in service, be aggregated with his service in the public service and his pension shall be calculated in accordance with the Pensions Act and the Pensions Regulations, 1947 as if all of his service was service in the public service.

Private pension plan

16. Subject to section 15, the Bank shall, within 2 years of the commencement of this Act, provide for the establishment of a pension plan for the benefit of the staff of the Bank.

Confidentiality

17.(1) Except for the purpose of the performance of his duties or the exercise of his functions or when lawfully required to do so by any court or under the provisions of any law, no director, member of any committee or employee of the Bank shall disclose to any person any material information relating to the affairs of the Bank or any other bank, financial institution, person, firm, company or organisation which he has acquired in the performance of his duties or exercise of his functions.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $25 000 or to imprisonment for 2 years or both.

Committees

18.(1) The Board may establish committees to advise or assist in the performance of the Board's or the Bank's functions.

(2) A committee may be constituted

- (a) wholly by members of the Board;
- (b) wholly by persons who are not Board members; or
- (c) partly by Board members and partly by other persons.

(3) The Board may determine, in relation to a committee established under this section

- (a) the terms of reference of the committee;
- (b) the terms and conditions of appointment of the members of the committee; and
- (c) any procedures to be followed by the committee.

(4) Where a committee, appointed under subsection (2) performs a function, it is deemed to have been performed by the Board.

(5) Where the Board decides that a member of a committee is to be remunerated, that member shall be paid such remuneration and allowances, if any, as the Board determines.

Experts

19. The Bank may engage consultants to assist in the performance of its functions and on such terms and conditions as determined by the Board.

PART III

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Establishment of Special Account

20. The Special Account of the Barbados Blue Green Bank is hereby established.

Funds

- 21.(1) The funds of the Bank shall consist of
- (a) money paid to the Bank under section 30;
 - (b) any other money received by the Bank.
- (2) The Bank's money shall be applied only
- (a) in performing its investment functions;
 - (b) in paying or discharging the costs, expenses and other obligations incurred by the Bank in performing its functions as set out in section 7; and
 - (c) in paying any remuneration and allowances payable to any person pursuant to this Act.

Borrowing powers

22. The Bank may, with the approval of the Board, borrow any money it requires for meeting any of its obligations or performing any of its functions, provided that the Board takes into account the following:

- (a) the amount and sources of the loan;
- (b) the terms and conditions on which the loan may be obtained; and
- (c) the solvency of the Bank's financial position at the time of the borrowing.

Guarantee of loans

23. The Government may, with the approval of Parliament, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as may be specified, guarantee a loan to the Bank together with any interest or other charges payable.

Receipt of gifts or grants

24. The Bank may accept a gift or grant of money or a gift or grant of a financial asset provided that the Board authorises the Bank in writing to accept the gift or grant.

Financial year

25. The financial year of the Bank shall be the calendar year, namely, 1st January to 31st December in any calendar year.

Accounts and audit

26.(1) The Bank shall keep proper accounts and other records in relation to the business of the Bank, and shall prepare annually, a statement of accounts in a form that complies with generally acceptable commercial accounting standards.

(2) The accounts of the Bank shall be audited at least once every financial year by an external auditor appointed by the Board.

Reports

27.(1) The Bank shall, no later than the 15th day of the month following, prepare a statement of the condition of the Bank as at the close of business on the last business day of each quarter, and shall transmit a copy of the statement to the Board and the shareholders.

- (2) Within 3 months after the close of each financial year the Board shall
 - (a) transmit to the shareholders a copy of its annual accounts certified by its auditor; and
 - (b) submit also a report on its operations during the year.
- (3) Within 4 months of the close of each financial year, the Bank shall publish a report providing information on the extent to which the Bank has been able
 - (a) to implement its environmental, social and governance strategies and goals; and
 - (b) to deal with the impact of its business on the environment.

Authorised capital

28.(1) Subject to this section, the initial authorised share capital of the Bank shall be $500 million, divided into such shares and issued on such terms as the Directors shall determine at the first meeting of the Board.

- (2) The shares shall be available for subscription by shareholders in accordance with section 29.
- (3) The original authorised capital stock shall be divided into paid-up shares.
- (4) The authorised capital stock may be increased by the Board at such time and on such terms and conditions as it may determine by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the total number of Directors present and voting.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the Board shall increase the authorised capital of the Bank pursuant to any directive issued in that regard by the Central Bank or the Financial Services Commission.

Subscription for shares

29.(1) A shareholder shall subscribe for shares of the capital stock of the Bank and the authorised capital stock shall at all times be held or be available for subscription.

(2) In case of an increase in the authorised capital stock, each shareholder shall have a right to subscribe, on such terms and conditions as the Board shall determine, for a proportion of the increase of stock equivalent to the proportion which its previously subscribed stock bears to the total subscribed capital stock immediately before such increase.

(3) The Board may, at the request of a shareholder, approve an increase of the subscription of such shareholder on such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

(4) Shares initially subscribed for by a shareholder shall be issued on such terms as the Board determines.

(5) The Government shall subscribe for a portion of the initial paid-up capital and may subscribe for such other amounts as it determines.

(6) Shares shall not be pledged and encumbered in any manner.

(7) Liability of shareholders in respect of their shares shall be limited to the unpaid portion of their issue price.

Payment of subscriptions

30.(1) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a shareholder may pay fully for all the shares for which it has subscribed.

- (2) Payment of an amount due in respect of shares initially subscribed for by a shareholder but not fully paid-up, may be made in 6 instalments provided that the first instalment is equal to 40 per cent of the total amount subscribed for.
- (3) The first instalment shall be paid by each shareholder within 90 days after the date on which a shareholder subscribes for shares.
- (4) The other 5 instalments shall be paid as the Board may determine.

PART IV

INVESTMENT

Investment functions

31.(1) The investment functions of the Bank are to invest, directly or indirectly, in clean energy technologies, climate mitigation, climate resilient and climate adaptation projects or programmes in the sustainable green and blue sectors of the economy.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Bank may perform its investment functions by doing any or all of the following:

- (a) investing in businesses or projects for the development or commercialisation of, or in relation to the use of green and sustainable technologies;
- (b) investing in businesses or projects pursuing climate mitigation, climate resilient or climate adaptation strategies;
- (c) investing in businesses that supply goods or services needed to develop or commercialise, or needed for use in the blue and green sectors of the economy;
- (d) giving guarantees in accordance with section 7.

(3) In performing its investment functions, the Bank shall seek to ensure a balance between its investments in renewable energy, other climate mitigation technologies and climate adaptation projects.

(4) The Bank may perform its investment functions by making investments itself through companies, subsidiaries, agencies or other investment vehicles or by any combination of these.

(5) An investment may be an investment for the purposes of the Bank's investment functions, regardless of the means by which it is made.

Investment Committee

32.(1) There shall be an Investment Committee comprising no more than 9 persons.

(2) The functions of the Investment Committee are to advise the Board on investment policies and to perform such other duties as may be delegated by the Board with regard to investment matters.

(3) In the absence of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman shall preside at meetings of the Committee.

(4) Six members shall constitute a quorum.

(5) The Investment Committee shall regulate its own procedure.

Complying investments

33.(1) The Board shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that investments for the purposes of the Bank's investment functions are at all times complying investments.

(2) Complying investments are investments that are

(a) in sustainable, blue and green technologies;

(b) in climate adaptation and resilience; and

(c) not in a prohibited technology.

- (3) The fact that an investment has ceased to be, or never was, a complying investment, does not affect the validity of any transaction.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, an investment does not cease to be an investment in clean energy technology only because the technology to which the investment relates has, since the investment was made, ceased to qualify as a clean energy technology because
- (a) its performance has not met reasonable expectations that existed at the time when the investment was made; or
 - (b) different standards for measuring clean energy technologies are being applied than were being applied at the time when the investment was made.

Performance of investment functions

34. Where an asset held by the Bank for the purposes of the investment function of the Bank ceases to be, or never was, a worthwhile investment in the opinion of the Board, the Bank shall act as soon as practicable to protect its capital and conform with regulatory capital requirements, which may include immediately realising the asset as soon as practicable after the Bank becomes aware that the asset has ceased to be, or never was, a worthwhile asset.

Investment mandate and policies

- 35.(1) The investment mandate of the Bank requires the Board to formulate written policies to be complied with by the Bank in respect of the following:
- (a) the investment strategy of the Bank;
 - (b) benchmarks for assessing the performance of the Bank's investments and the Bank itself;
 - (c) risk management for the Bank's investments and the Board itself.
- (2) Copies of the policies referred to in subsection (1) shall be published on the Bank's website.

(3) The Board shall conduct periodic reviews of the policies and where there is a change in the investment mandate, the Board shall review the affected policies.

(4) The Bank shall comply with the policies but a failure to do so does not affect the validity of any transaction.

PART V

MISCELLANEOUS

Offences

36.(1) Any person who

- (a) obtains financial assistance from the Bank under this Act by means of any false representation;
- (b) wilfully applies any loan made to him by the Bank or guaranteed by the Bank under this Act to any purpose other than the purpose for which the loan was made;
- (c) having obtained a loan from the Bank or the guarantee by the Bank of a loan under this Act, wilfully destroys any security given in respect of such loan or guarantee, is guilty of an offence.

Appointment of first directors

3.(1) Where, at the date of commencement of this Act, the Government is the sole shareholder in the Bank, the Minister shall appoint 3 persons to be the first directors of the Bank in accordance with the requirements of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Schedule.

(2) Within 14 days after at least 4 shareholders have subscribed for shares, the authority of the Minister to appoint directors under subparagraph (1) hereof shall cease and, thereafter, the shareholders shall appoint the remaining directors.

Meetings of the Board

4.(1) The Board shall meet as often as the business of the Board requires, but not less frequently than once every quarter.

(2) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings at which he is present.

Duties of directors

5.(1) Every director shall, in exercising his duties,

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Bank; and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

(2) In determining the best interests of the Bank, a director must have regard to the interests of the Bank as well as the interests of the employees in general.

Chairman and Deputy Chairman

6.(1) The Board of Directors shall appoint

- (a) one of the directors to be Chairman of the Board; and
- (b) another director to be the Deputy Chairman.

(2) In the case of absence of the Chairman or his inability to act as such, the Deputy Chairman shall perform the functions of the Chairman.

(3) Where both the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman are absent, or in the event of their inability to act thereat, the directors present and constituting a quorum shall elect a Chairman from among their number to preside at the meeting.

Tenure of Members

7. A Board member shall hold office for a period in accordance with paragraph 1(2) of this Schedule and may be eligible for one further reappointment.

Resignation

9. A director may resign his office at any time by giving the Chairman of the Board written notice of such resignation.
