 - (a) the mortgage shall be endorsed upon the ship's documents;
 - (b) the mortgage shall be registered under subsection (4); and
 - (c) an affidavit shall be filed with the record of mortgage to the effect that the mortgage is made in good faith and without any design to hinder, delay, or defraud any existing or future creditor of the mortgagor or any person holding a lien of the mortgaged ship.
- (6) There shall be endorsed upon the certificate of registration of a ship subject to a valid mortgage
 - (a) the names of the mortgagor and the mortgagee;
 - (b) the date and time that the endorsement is made; and
 - (c) the amount and date of maturity of the mortgage.
- (7) Mortgages shall be registered in the order in which they are submitted for registration to the Principal Registrar and he shall enter and sign on each mortgage a statement to the effect that it has been registered by him, together with the date and time of the registration.
- (8) Where a mortgage instrument states that it is prohibited to create further mortgages over the ship without the prior written consent of the mortgagee, the Principal Registrar shall make a note of that in the register, and shall not register any further mortgage unless the consent in writing of the holder of a prior mortgage is produced to him.
- (9) A mortgage registered other than in accordance with subsection (8) is null and void.
- (10) Where a mortgage instrument states that it is prohibited to transfer the ownership of the ship or terminate the registration of the ship, without the prior written consent of the mortgagee, the Principal Registrar shall make a note of that in the register, and shall not record a transfer of ownership of the ship or terminate the ship's registration, unless the appropriate consent in writing of the holder of the mortgage is submitted to him.

(11) A transfer of ownership or a termination of the ship's registration registered other than in accordance with subsection (10) is null and void.

(12) A mortgage may be registered in the register in respect of a provisionally registered ship, and a mortgage so registered is subject to the provisions of this Act relating to mortgages and any registration regulations made under this Act.

(13) A mortgage registered under subsection (12) shall continue to be a registered mortgage until it is discharged, even if the provisional registration of the ship in respect of which the mortgage was registered ceases to be effective.

(14) A mortgage in respect of a ship under construction shall be entered in the register.

(15) Where the registration of a ship under construction is transferred to another part of the register, the entries relating to any mortgage that is not discharged shall in like manner be transferred to that part of the register.

(16) A mortgage in respect of a ship under construction shall, for the purpose of determining priority under this or any other law and in all other respects, be treated as a registered ship mortgage until it is discharged, even if the ship under construction ceases to be registered under this Act, and a ship under construction shall, for the purposes of a mortgage on it under this Act or any other law, be treated as maritime property.

(17) Notwithstanding subsections (2) to (6), where a ship has been previously registered in a foreign country and mortgages were registered against that ship and at the time of its registration as a Barbadian ship, the applicant for registration shall produce to the Principal Registrar the written consent of every mortgagee.

(18) On production of the required consents, those mortgages shall be recorded by the Principal Registrar in the order of precedence indicated in the previous register.

(19) No mortgage instrument shall be recorded in the register in respect of a bareboat chartered ship that has been registered under the law of a foreign country and that has an existing registration as a Barbadian ship.

Priority of mortgage

253.(1) Where 2 or more mortgages are registered in respect of the same ship or share, the priority of the mortgagees between themselves shall, subject to subsection (2), be determined by the order in which the mortgages were registered.

(2) The Minister may make regulations to permit intending mortgagees to give priority notices to the Principal Registrar in a form prescribed by the regulations that will, when recorded in the register, determine the priority of the mortgage interest to which the notice relates.

Entry of discharge of mortgage

254.(1) Where a registered mortgage is discharged, the Principal Registrar shall, on the production of the mortgage deed, with a receipt for the mortgage money endorsed on it, duly signed and attested, make an entry in the register to the effect that the mortgage has been discharged.

(2) On the entry under subsection (1) being made, any estate that passed to the mortgagee shall vest in the person in whom it would have vested if the mortgage had not been made.

(3) Where for good reason the registered mortgage cannot be produced to the Principal Registrar, he may, on being satisfied that the mortgage has been properly discharged, record in the register that the mortgage has been discharged.

Protection of undischarged mortgage

255.(1) Where the registration of a ship terminates under this Act, the termination shall not affect any entry in the register of an undischarged registered mortgage of the ship or of any share in.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to an entry in the register where the Principal Registrar is satisfied that a person appearing on the register to be interested as a mortgagee under the mortgage in question has consented to the entry ceasing to have effect.

Mortgagee not owner and mortgagee's power of sale

256.(1) Except as far as may be necessary for making a mortgaged ship or share available as a security for the mortgage debt, the mortgagee shall not by reason of the mortgage be deemed to be the owner of the ship or share, nor shall the mortgagor be deemed to have ceased to be owner of it.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), every registered mortgagee may, if the mortgage money or any part of it is due, sell the ship or share in respect of which he is registered and give receipts for the purchase money.

(3) Where 2 or more mortgagees are registered in respect of the same ship or share, a subsequent mortgagee shall not, except under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, sell the ship or share without the concurrence of every prior mortgagee.

Mortgage not affected by bankruptcy

257. A registered mortgage of a ship or share shall not be affected by any act of bankruptcy committed by the mortgagor after the date of the registration of the mortgage, notwithstanding that the mortgagor at the commencement of the bankruptcy had the ship or share in his possession, order or disposition, or was the reputed owner of it, and the mortgage shall be preferred to any right, claim, or interest in the ship or share of the other creditors of the bankrupt or of any trustee or assignee on their behalf.

Transfer of mortgages and transmission of mortgage interest

258.(1) A registered mortgage of a ship or share may be transferred to any person and on production of the instrument effecting the transfer the Principal Registrar shall record it by entering in the register the name of the transferee as mortgagee of the ship or share, and shall enter and sign on the instrument of transfer a statement to the effect that it has been registered by him, stating the date and the time of the registration.

(2) Where a mortgage interest in a ship or share is transmitted to any person by a lawful means other than by a transfer under subsection (1), that person shall produce to the Principal Registrar a statement of the manner in which and the person to whom, the property has been transmitted, accompanied by the same evidence this Act requires for a transmission of the ownership of a ship or share.

(3) The Principal Registrar, on the receipt of the documents and the production of the evidence referred to in subsection (2), shall enter the name of the person entitled under the transmission in the register as mortgagee of the ship or share.

Lien of registered mortgage

259.(1) A mortgage validly registered under this Act shall constitute a maritime lien upon the vessel in the amount of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness secured by the vessel.

(2) A mortgagor, before executing a registered mortgage, shall disclose to the mortgagee in writing the existence of every maritime lien, prior mortgage or other obligation or liability upon the vessel to be mortgaged that is known to the mortgagor.

(3) After the execution of the mortgage and before the mortgagee has had a reasonable time in which to record it and have proper endorsements made upon the documents of the vessel, the mortgagor shall not, without the consent of the mortgagee, incur any contractual obligation creating a maritime lien upon the vessel other than liens denominated in Article 4 of the International Convention on Maritime Liens and Mortgages, 1993.

(4) A preferred mortgage may bear the rate of interest that the parties to the mortgage mutually agree.

Record of notice of claim of lien, discharge of lien and mortgage

260.(1) The Principal Registrar shall, at the request of any person, record notice of the person's claim of a mortgage or lien upon a vessel registered under this Act, together with the nature, date of creation and amount of the mortgage or lien and the name and address of the person.

(2) A person who has caused notice of such a claim to be recorded shall, upon a discharge in whole or in part of the indebtedness, without delay file a certificate of discharge with the Principal Registrar, who shall then record the certificate of the discharge of the mortgage or lien.

(3) The mortgagor shall, upon the discharge of any mortgage indebtedness in part or in full, without delay file a certificate of the discharge duly executed by the mortgagee, his successor or assigns with the Principal Registrar, who shall then record the certificate.

(4) The Principal Registrar shall endorse the fact of such a discharge on the certificate of registration of the vessel and a certificate of the endorsement, giving the time, place and description of the endorsement, shall also be recorded in the register.

(5) Where an endorsement on a certificate of registration is made by a person other than the Principal Registrar, the certificate shall be promptly furnished to the Principal Registrar for recording purposes.

Jurisdiction and procedure on mortgages

261.(1) Notwithstanding section 260, a lien in respect of a mortgage may be enforced in Barbados by a suit in rem in the High Court upon default of any of its terms or conditions and, in addition to any notice by publication, the applicant shall give notice of the commencement of suit, in such a manner as the High Court may direct, to the master, other ranking officer or caretaker of the vessel and to any person who has recorded a notice of claim of an undischarged lien upon the vessel.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where, in spite of a bona fide attempt made by the applicant to the satisfaction of the High Court, the person could not be traced within Barbados.
- (3) Subject to section 251, the lien of a mortgage may also be enforced by a suit in rem or otherwise in any foreign country in which the vessel may be found, in accordance with the procedure of that country for the enforcement of ship mortgages constituting maritime liens on vessels documented under the laws of that country.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, a mortgagee may, in addition to any other remedies granted under this section, bring a suit in personam against the mortgagor in a court of competent jurisdiction for the amount of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness or for any deficiency in the full payment of it.
- (5) Nothing in this Act is deemed to authorize the enforcement by suit in rem in the High Court of the rights of the mortgagee in respect of assets or personal property other than vessels covered by a mortgage.

Consequences of sale by the court

262. The sale of a vessel may be made by the order of a competent court in accordance with the mortgage deed under Article 12 of the International Convention on Maritime Liens and Mortgages, 1993.

Maritime lien and waiver

263.(1) A person who provides repairs, towage, supplies or other necessities, or permits the use of dry dock, to a vessel, whether domestic or foreign, shall, at the request of the owner or of any person authorized by the owner, have a maritime lien on the vessel from the time of the transaction for the amounts due in that respect.

(2) Marine liens created pursuant to this section shall be governed by the international conventions referred to in section 264.

(3) Nothing in this section is deemed to confer a lien in favour of a person referred to in subsection (1) if the person knew, or with the exercise of reasonable diligence could have ascertained, that the person who requisitioned the services, supplies or other necessities was acting without authority.

(4) A person who is entitled to a lien under subsection (1) may, at any time by agreement or otherwise, waive his right to the lien or, in the case of preferred mortgage, to the preferred status of the lien.

International Convention on Maritime Liens and Mortgages, 1993

264.(1) Article 16 of the International Convention on Maritime Liens and Mortgages, 1993 shall have the force of law in Barbados, but without prejudice to any transaction enacted prior to the date of coming into force of this Act to which Article 1-11 of the Brussels Convention 1926 applied.

(2) Notwithstanding Article 6 of the International Convention on Maritime Liens and Mortgages 1993, a maritime lien is valid for a period of 12 months from the time when the claim secured by it arose.

PART XIV

PREFERRED SHIP MORTGAGES AND MARITIME LIENS

Application

265. This Part applies to mortgages that are the first lien that may be claimed against a vessel and that take precedence over all other liens on the vessel, other than liens specified under Article 4 of the International Convention on Maritime Liens and Mortgages 1993.

Meaning of preferred mortgage

266. In this Part, “preferred mortgage” means a mortgage recorded against a vessel registered in Barbados that meets the requirements of section 269.

Recording and contents

267.(1) A sale, conveyance, hypothecation, mortgage or assignment of mortgage of a vessel, against a person other than the grantor or mortgagor, his heirs or devisees and persons having actual notice of it is not valid until the instrument evidencing the transaction is recorded under this section.

(2) The Principal Registrar shall record an instrument referred to in subsection (1), in the order of its receipt, in the indices to be kept for that purpose, showing

- (a) the name of the vessel;
- (b) the names of the parties;
- (c) the time and date of receipt of the instrument;
- (d) the interest of the vessel transferred or affected; and
- (e) the amount of the direct or contingent obligations, including those provided for in section 275, that are or may become secured by the mortgage.

Registration, recording and discharge of financing charters

268.(1) Without adversely affecting the documentation, eligibility for documentation or renewal of documentation of a vessel, a documented owner and a charterer who has executed a contract in the form of a demise or bareboat charter of a documented vessel may register for recording a copy of the contract with the Principal Registrar in the name of the documented owner.

(2) The contract shall be signed and acknowledged by the documented owner and the charterer and shall include

- (a) the name and official number of the vessel;
- (b) the date of the contract;
- (c) the names and addresses of the documented owner and the charterer;

- (d) the total amount secured; and
 - (e) the maximum aggregate of the nominal amount of all charter hire payments, termination payments, and purchase or put option amounts that could under any circumstances be due and payable under the financing charter, excluding any interest, indemnities, expenses or fees.
- (3) A security interest in a vessel in favour of a documented owner, evidenced by a contract that is a financing charter, that is registered for recording in compliance with this section, is deemed to be a preferred mortgage on the vessel in favour of the documented owner for all purposes, effective as of the date and time of filing.
- (4) This Part shall apply to any contract registered in accordance with this section that is a financing charter.
- (5) A documented owner may also register for recording, any renewals, amendments, supplements, assignments or other instruments related to a contract registered under subsection (1).
- (6) A documented owner may grant one or more preferred mortgages encumbering the whole of a vessel, and any supplements, amendments, assignments or other instruments related to them, notwithstanding that the documented owner or predecessor in interest has entered into a contract that is deemed to be a preferred mortgage on the vessel pursuant to subsection (1).
- (7) The mere registration or recording of a contract as a financing charter under this section shall not constitute evidence that the contract is, in fact, a financing charter or that it creates a security interest.
- (8) The documented owner party to a financing charter is deemed to be a mortgagee under a preferred mortgage and the finance charterer is deemed the mortgagor, for all purposes under the laws of Barbados.
- (9) Without affecting the validity of a financing charter as a preferred mortgage, the parties to a financing charter may redact or omit any exhibit to it, including any schedule with respect to the due date and amount of individual instalments of charter hire and the timing and amount of individual purchase options, termination payments or puts.

(10) An existing demise or bareboat charter that does not meet the requirements of this section may be eligible for filing as a financing charter upon execution and acknowledgment of an amendment or supplement that specifically attaches and incorporates the existing demise or bareboat charter, if the amendment or supplement meets the recording requirements of this section.

(11) The Principal Registrar may accept for filing a discharge of a preferred mortgage maritime lien that is evidenced by a recorded financing charter under this section, if the filing will not affect the registration of the vessel or otherwise affect any rights or obligations of the parties under the financing charter.

Preferred mortgage

269.(1) A valid mortgage that at the time it is made includes the whole of a vessel, including a vessel under construction, shall have a preferred status in respect of the vessel as of the date of its recording under this Act.

(2) The preferred status of a mortgage under this Part shall not be prejudiced or impaired by reason

- (a) that the mortgage secures the payment, pledge or assignment of monies or rights, due or to become due, such as guarantee fees, insurance options, charter hire, freight revenues or any other fees, costs or charges, direct or contingent, incidental to the sale, purchase or operation of a Barbados vessel;
- (b) of the applicability of or compliance with section 275; or
- (c) that no advance of monies is or has been made at the time of its recording.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a valid mortgage, whenever made, that

- (a) includes the whole of any vessel;
- (b) is recorded as provided in this Part; and

- (c) is granted in continuation of a prior recorded mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge on the vessel, whether granted under the laws of Barbados or the laws of another nation under which the vessel was documented at the time the prior mortgage was recorded, shall have preferred status in respect of the vessel as of the date of recording of the prior mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge.

(4) For purposes of this section, a mortgage that is granted in continuation of a prior recorded mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge is deemed a mortgage on a Barbados vessel if

- (a) the vessel covered by the mortgage is covered by the prior mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge;
- (b) the obligations secured by the mortgage are obligations secured by the prior mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge;
- (c) the mortgage is granted by the current vessel owner, whether or not the owner is the vessel owner who granted the prior mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge to secure obligations secured by the prior mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge; and
- (d) for a vessel entering the Barbados international ships registry, the mortgage is recorded during the period defined in subsection (6).

(5) Nothing in subsection (4) shall be construed to pre-empt any court judgment that would recognize the preferred status of a mortgage on a vessel of Barbados prior to the date of its recording.

(6) For a vessel entering the Barbados international ships registry, the preferred status of a mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge on the vessel recognized under section 284 shall continue for a period of 30 days following registration of the vessel, if the information with respect to the mortgage required by the Principal Registrar is furnished to the Principal Registrar in connection with the registration of the vessel under this Act.

(7) The preferred status of a mortgage shall not be adversely affected by the deletion or release of the mortgage as a matter of record from the vessel's prior register in connection with, or as a condition to, deletion of the vessel from that register.

(8) A certified extract of the preferred mortgage index of the public register maintained by the Principal Registrar, a certificate of ownership and encumbrance issued by the Principal Registrar or, in the case of a mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge recorded in another nation, similar documentation, including a transcript of registry, certified or issued by the appropriate governmental agency in that nation, shall be accepted as evidence of the granting and recording of a mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge, including the date of its recording.

Termination of mortgagee's interest

270.(1) The interest of a mortgagee in a vessel registered under this Act shall not be terminated by a forfeiture of the vessel for a violation of any law of Barbados, unless the mortgagee authorized, consented or conspired to effect the act, failure, or omission that constituted the violation.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a vessel that is the subject of a preferred mortgage may not be cancelled from the register for so long as the indebtedness secured by the preferred mortgage remains unsatisfied or the mortgage is not otherwise discharged.

(3) The Principal Registrar may, not less than 60 days following the mailing of notice to all mortgagees of record at their last known mailing addresses of his intent to do so, strike a vessel from the registry and flag of Barbados as a result of receipt by the Principal Registrar of evidence satisfactory to him that the vessel has been lost, destroyed or transferred to another registry following sale by order of an admiralty court in a civil action in rem.

(4) The striking of a vessel under subsection (3) shall not impair or affect the lien or status of any preferred mortgage recorded under this Part or terminate the interest of a mortgagee in the vessel.

Conditions precedent for ship mortgage

271.(1) A mortgage in relation to a vessel shall not be recordable unless it states the interest of the mortgagor in the vessel, and the interest mortgaged.

(2) A mortgage or instrument of release or discharge of a mortgage shall not be recorded unless it is notarized, bears an apostille, has been acknowledged or is submitted with such other proof of due execution required by the laws of Barbados.

Bill of sale; recording

272. The Principal Registrar may accept for recording a bill of sale or other conveyance of a vessel, or a facsimile of one, if

- (a) the original has been received by a notary public or a special agent that recites the interest of the seller in the vessel and the interests sold or conveyed;
- (b) it has previously been acknowledged or is submitted with such other proof of due execution required by the laws of Barbados; and
- (c) if it is a bill of sale of a vessel already documented under the laws of Barbados, it has attached to it a copy of its latest certificate of registration.

Recording of mortgage

273.(1) The Principal Registrar may accept for recording a mortgage on a vessel if

- (a) it recites the interest of the mortgagor in the vessel and the interest mortgaged;
- (b) it is notarized, bears an apostille, has been acknowledged or is submitted with such other proof of due execution required by the laws of Barbados; and

- (c) written proof is furnished to the Principal Registrar of the amounts and dates of any documents or evidence of debts in support of it.
- (2) The Principal Registrar shall record a mortgage or related instrument submitted in proper form, and shall, upon request, issue a certified extract of the preferred mortgage index of the public register maintained by the Principal Registrar as evidence of recording of a preferred ship mortgage under this Part.
- (3) A certificate of ownership and encumbrance shall, upon request, be issued by the Principal Registrar, setting forth all recorded mortgages, encumbrances and related instruments with respect to a vessel registered under this Act as at the time and date of its issuance.

Allocation of mortgage indebtedness

274.(1) If a preferred mortgage includes more than one vessel or includes property that is not a vessel, the mortgage may provide for the separate discharge of each vessel and of all property not a vessel by the payment of a part of the mortgage indebtedness.

(2) If a vessel that is covered by a preferred mortgage includes more than one vessel, or property that is not a vessel, is to be sold on the order of an admiralty court in a civil action in rem and the mortgage does not provide for a separate discharge as provided in subsection (2), the preferred mortgage shall constitute a lien on that vessel in the full amount of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness, and an allocation of mortgage indebtedness for the purpose of a separate discharge may not be made by that court among the vessel and other property covered by the mortgage.

Advances and repayments pursuant to commitment

275.(1) A preferred mortgage may secure future advances, including contingent obligations, and shall not be extinguished or lose its priority because all previously outstanding obligations secured by it have been fully repaid or otherwise performed, if an advance or other value is to be given at a later time pursuant to commitment existing at the time the mortgage is recorded.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), an advance or other value is given pursuant to commitment if the mortgagee or other person entitled to the benefit of the security of the mortgage has bound himself to give it, whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within his control has relieved, or may relieve, him from that obligation.

(3) When a preferred mortgage secures an obligation in respect of which one or more advances or repayments may be made from time to time in the future and the maximum amount outstanding under the obligation at any one time is limited to a certain amount, the amount to be recorded with respect to that obligation may be either

(a) the maximum amount that may be outstanding at any one time; or

(b) the aggregate of all possible advances that may be made.

(4) A preferred mortgage made pursuant to commitment shall clearly indicate whether the amount is the maximum amount that may be outstanding at any one time or is the aggregate of all possible advances.

Advances or other value given pursuant to agreement

276.(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Part, a preferred mortgage may secure an agreed-upon maximum amount representing all debts or obligations arising or that may arise between the debtor and the creditor within a specified period.

(2) Such a maximum amount may exceed the value of the vessel or vessels, which may themselves represent only a part of all of the assets that are subject to the preferred mortgage.

(3) Only indebtedness that incurred on or prior to the maturity date or date of termination of a preferred mortgage made pursuant to agreement shall retain its status and ranking as a preferred maritime lien under this Part, and that indebtedness shall include all expenses and interest associated with the indebtedness prior to maturity.

(4) A preferred mortgage made pursuant to agreement under this section shall not be required to represent a commitment to lend on the part of the mortgagee, but shall secure all debts or obligations arising or that may arise between the parties as a result of transactions the nature of which are subject to the provisions of the mortgage deed, whether present or future, actual or contingent, and shall set forth in addition to other terms and conditions the maximum amount and the maturity date, or a statement of the date of termination if it is other than the maturity date.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to impair the lien status, recordability, validity or enforceability with respect to a vessel registered under this Part of a preferred mortgage granted by its owner that

(a) secures obligations, in whole or in part, arising out of specific successive business contracts or other transactions, whether or not such contracts or transactions are related to or arise from the construction, purchase, sale or chartering of a vessel registered under this Part; or

(b) secures all debts or obligations owed or to be owed under it, so long as the aggregate amount of such debts or obligations does not exceed at any one time the stated maximum amount of the mortgage.

(6) The preferred status of a mortgage made pursuant to agreement in accordance with this section that may be secured by property that is not a vessel or more than one vessel shall not be impaired by reason that the mortgage does not provide for a separate discharge of it.

Units of account

277.(1) The obligations secured by a preferred mortgage may be expressed in any unit or units of account to which the parties may agree, including the currency of Barbados and the currency of a foreign state, or in equivalents of any other unit or units of account established by intergovernmental organizations.

(2) If a preferred mortgage secures an obligation in one or more specified units of account and there is an option to have a unit of account altered from time to time, the principal amount of the mortgage to be recorded shall be denominated in one or more of the specified units of account.

(3) A recording referred to in subsection (2) may include as additional words “or an equivalent amount in any alternate unit of account” or similar language, and if such additional words are recorded, no change in the recorded amount shall be required to reflect the fact that the obligation or any portion of it is subsequently denominated in a different unit of account, unless the parties otherwise agree.

(4) When a preferred mortgage secures an obligation in respect of which there is an option to have the obligation amount denominated from time to time in alternate units of account but which continues to be payable in, or by reference to, a specified unit of account

(a) the amount of the obligation to be recorded shall be expressed in the specified unit of account; and

(b) notwithstanding any exercise of the option, no change in the recorded amount shall be required.

(5) A preferred mortgage described in subsections (2) or (4) may additionally secure a loss up to a specified amount arising out of fluctuations between a specified unit of account and any alternate unit of account in which the obligation amount may be denominated from time to time, and that specified amount shall also be recorded.

Lien of preferred mortgage

278.(1) A preferred mortgage shall constitute a maritime lien upon the mortgaged vessel in the amount of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness secured by the vessel.

(2) The lien of a preferred mortgage shall not be in any way impaired or affected because the vessel’s document following recording of the mortgage has expired, or has been restrictively endorsed, suspended, revoked or cancelled.

Interest on preferred mortgage

279. Notwithstanding any other law or regulation to the contrary, a preferred mortgage may secure an interest, including interest in an interest, on an obligation secured by the mortgage as the parties may agree, including at a fixed rate, variable rate, rate based upon a formula, or by adding margins to the mortgagee's cost, from time to time, of funding an obligation secured by the mortgage.

Priority, disclosure of liens and penalty

280.(1) A mortgagor, before executing a preferred mortgage, shall disclose to the mortgagee in writing the existence of any maritime lien, prior mortgage or other obligation or liability upon the vessel to be mortgaged that is known as the mortgagor.

(2) After the execution of a mortgage and before the mortgagee has had a reasonable time in which to record it, the mortgagor shall not incur without the consent of the mortgagee any contractual obligation creating a lien upon the vessel, other than a lien specified under Article 4 of the Convention on Maritime Liens and Mortgages 1993.

(3) A mortgagor, or the president or principal officer of a corporate mortgagor, who contravenes this section with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud an existing or future creditor of the mortgagor or of a lien on the mortgaged vessel commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $75 000.

(4) On the conviction for an offence under subsection (3), the mortgage indebtedness shall become immediately due and payable at the election of the mortgagee.

Exhibition of certified copies

281.(1) Upon the recording of a preferred mortgage, 2 certified copies of it shall be delivered to the mortgagor, who shall place and use due diligence to retain one copy on board the mortgaged vessel, and cause the copy and the document of the vessel to be exhibited by the master of the vessel to any person having business that may give rise to a maritime lien or to the sale, conveyance or mortgage of the vessel.

(2) The license of a Master who wilfully fails to exhibit a document and copy referred to in subsection (1) may be suspended or revoked.

Discharge of mortgage

282.(1) A mortgagor, upon the complete discharge of the mortgage indebtedness, shall without delay file a certificate of the discharge, duly executed by the mortgagee, or his successors or assigns, with the Principal Registrar, who shall record the certificate.

(2) A mortgagor may similarly file a certificate of partial discharge, which shall be similarly recorded.

Jurisdiction and procedure on foreclosure and default

283.(1) The lien of a preferred mortgage may be enforced in Barbados by a suit in rem in the High Court of Barbados, sitting in Admiralty, upon default of any term or condition of the mortgage.

(2) In addition to any notice by publication, actual notice of the commencement of such a suit shall be given by the libellant, in such manner as the Court directs, to the master, other ranking officer or caretaker of the vessel, and to any person who has recorded a notice of claim of an undischarged lien upon the vessel, unless after search by the libellant satisfactory to the Court no such person is found within Barbados.

(3) Failure to give notice under subsection (2) shall not constitute a jurisdictional defect, but the libellant is liable to a person who has recorded a notice of claim of an undischarged lien upon the vessel for damages in the amount of any interest in the vessel terminated by the suit.

(4) The lien of a preferred mortgage may also be enforced by a suit in rem in admiralty or otherwise in any foreign country in which the vessel is found, pursuant to the procedure of that country for the enforcement of ship mortgages constituting maritime liens on vessels documented under the laws of that country.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this Part, a mortgagee may, in addition to any other remedy under this Part, bring suit in personam against the mortgagor, maker, co-maker or guarantor in any court of competent jurisdiction for the amount of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness or for any deficiency in the full payment of it.

(6) The enforcement by a suit in rem in admiralty of the rights of a mortgagee with respect to a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage shall not be precluded or impaired, notwithstanding the enforcement of any rights that the mortgagee may have under the mortgage to property that is not a vessel.

Preferred status

284.(1) In sections 261, 266, 268 and 270

“preferred mortgage” means

- (a) a preferred mortgage made under this Part;
- (b) a mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge created as security upon a documented foreign vessel, if the mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge was duly and validly executed and registered in accordance with the laws of the nation where the vessel’s ownership is documented; or
- (c) a financing charter of a foreign vessel that has been registered in a public registry at the port of registry of the vessel or at
 - (i) the central office in the foreign country under whose laws the ownership of the vessel is registered in the name of the person stated to be the owner of the financing charter; and
 - (ii) if applicable, the central office in the foreign country under whose bareboat charter registry laws the financing charter of the vessel is registered in order to permit the vessel to sail under the flag of that foreign country; and

“preferred mortgage lien” includes a lien of such a mortgage, hypothecation or similar charge.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the Director may exempt a ship that embodies features of a novel kind from any requirements imposed by or under this Act relating to safety construction, life-saving appliances and radio communications the application of which might seriously impede research into the development of such features and their incorporation in ships engaged in international voyages.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (3), ship exempted under that subsection shall comply with safety requirements that, in the opinion of the Director, are adequate for the service for which it is intended and that ensure the overall safety of the ship.

(5) Where an exemption is granted under subsection (3), the Director shall communicate to the International Maritime Organization particulars of the exemption and the reasons for it.

(6) The Director may, if he considers that the sheltered nature and conditions of the voyage render the application of any specific requirements relating to safety construction, life-saving appliances or radio communications unreasonable or unnecessary, exempt from those requirements an individual Barbados ship, or class of ships, that in the course of their voyage do not proceed more than 20 miles from the nearest land.

Safety at sea regulations

(6) Where a surveyor visits a ship, he may ask the owner or his agent, the master, chief engineer or any other person on board and in charge or appearing to be in charge of the ship any questions concerning the ship as he thinks fit and that person shall fully and truthfully answer every such question.

(7) A surveyor may reasonably require of the owner or his agent, the master, chief engineer or any other person on board or in charge or appearing to be in charge of the ship that the machinery of the ship be activated or dismantled so that he may satisfy himself as to its condition and a person to whom such a request is made shall, if capable of doing so, comply with the requirement.

(2) A court may exercise the powers under subsection (1) notwithstanding that

(a) the owner of the goods has not committed an offence in respect of the goods, is not before the court, or has had no notice of the proceedings;

- (b) unfit to go on a voyage without serious danger to human life.

(3) In sections 420 to 423, a reference to “going to sea” shall, in a case where the service for which the ship is intended consists of going on voyages or excursions that do not involve going to sea, be construed as a reference to going on such a voyage or excursion.

Power to detain unsafe ship

453.(1) Where a ship in a port in Barbados or at sea in Barbados waters appears to an inspector to be an unsafe ship, the ship may be detained.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the power of detention conferred by subsection (1) is exercisable in relation to foreign ships as well as Barbados ships.
- (3) The power of detention of a ship at sea in Barbados waters is not exercisable in relation to a foreign-registered ship while the ship is exercising the right of innocent passage.
- (4) The officer detaining a ship shall serve on the master of the ship a detention notice that
 - (a) states that the inspector is of the opinion that the ship is an unsafe ship;
 - (b) specifies the matters that, in the inspector's opinion, make the ship an unsafe ship; and
 - (c) requires the ship to comply with the terms of the notice until it is released by an officer referred to in section 1220(1).
- (5) An officer detaining a ship that is not a Barbados ship shall send a copy of the detention notice as soon as practicable to the nearest consular officer for the country to which the ship belongs.
- (6) In this section, "inspector" means a person referred to in section 1056(1).

Referral of detention notice to arbitration

- 454.(1) Within 21 days from the service of a detention notice under section 453(4)(b), the master or owner of a ship may, by a notice given to the inspector, refer any question as to whether an opinion formed by an inspector on a matter specified in the detention notice had a valid basis to a single arbitrator appointed by agreement between the parties to the arbitration agreement.
- (2) The giving of a notice in accordance with subsection (1) shall not suspend the operation of the detention notice unless, on the application of the person making the referral, the arbitrator so directs.
 - (3) The arbitrator shall have regard, in coming to his decision, to any other matters not specified in the detention notice that appear to him to be relevant to whether the ship was an unsafe ship.

- (4) Where on a reference under this section the arbitrator decides, as respects any matter to which the reference relates,
- (a) that the matter did not constitute a valid basis for the inspector's opinion, he shall cancel the detention notice or affirm it with such modifications as he may think fit; and
 - (b) that the matter constituted a valid basis for the opinion, he shall affirm the notice in its original form.
- (5) The arbitrator shall include in his decision a finding whether there was a valid basis for the detention of the ship as an unsafe ship.

Compensation for invalid detention of ship

455.(1) If on a reference under section 454 relating to a detention notice in relation to a ship

- (a) the arbitrator decides that a matter did not constitute a valid basis for the inspector's opinion; and

- (b) it appears to him that there were no reasonable grounds for the inspector to form that opinion, the arbitrator may award the owner of the ship such compensation in respect of any loss suffered by him in consequence of the detention of the ship as the arbitrator thinks fit.

- (2) Any compensation awarded under this section shall be payable by the Minister.

Owner and master liable in respect of unsafe ship

456.(1) If a ship that

- (a) is in a port in Barbados; or
 (b) is a Barbados ship and is in any other port,

- (a) directly, under the terms of a charter-party or management agreement made with the owner; or
 (b) indirectly, under the terms of a series of charter-parties or management agreements, the reference to the owner in subsection (1) shall be construed as a reference to that other person.

- (3) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable

 (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine of $200 000 or to imprisonment for a term of 2 years, or both.

(4) It shall be a defence in proceedings for an offence under this section to prove that, at the time of the alleged offence

(a) arrangements had been made that were appropriate to ensure that before the ship went to sea it was made fit to do so without any serious danger to human life by reason of the matters relevant to its safety specified in the charge; or

(b) it was reasonable for such arrangements not to have been made.

(5) It shall also be a defence in proceedings for an offence under this section to prove that

(a) under the terms of a charter-party or management agreement entered into by the accused,

(i) where the accused is the owner, his responsibilities with respect to the matters relevant to the ship's safety; or

(ii) where the accused is liable to proceedings under this section by virtue of subsection (2), the responsibilities assumed by him,

had at the time of the alleged offence been wholly assumed by some other person or persons who were party to the agreement; and

(b) in the circumstances of the case, the accused had taken reasonable steps and exercised reasonable diligence to secure the proper discharge of the relevant responsibilities during the period during which they had been assumed by the person referred to in paragraph (a).

(6) In determining whether a defence is available to an accused under subsection (5), regard shall be had to

(a) whether prior to the time of the alleged offence the accused was, or in all the circumstances ought reasonably to have been, aware of any deficiency in the discharge of the responsibilities referred to in subsection (5); and

- (b) the extent to which the accused was or was notable, under the terms of a charter-party or management agreement referred to in paragraph (5) (a),
 - (i) to terminate it; or
 - (ii) to intervene in the management of the ship,

in the event of any such deficiency, and whether it was reasonable for the accused to place himself in that position.

(8) In this section, “management agreement”, in relation to a ship, means an agreement, other than a charter-party agreement or contract of employment, under which the ship is managed, in whole or in part, by a person other than the owner, whether on behalf of the owner or on behalf of some other person.

(9) References in this section to responsibilities being assumed by a person under the terms of a charter-party or management agreement are references to their being so assumed by him whether or not he has entered into a further charter-party or management agreement providing for them to be assumed by some other person.

Use of unsafe vessels

457.(1) Where a person uses or causes or permits to be used in navigation a lighter, barge or like vessel when, because of

- (a) the defective condition of her hull or equipment;
- (b) overloading or improper loading; or
- (c) under manning,

it is so unsafe that human life is endangered by it, he commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $60 000.

(2) This section does not affect the liability of the owners of a lighter, barge or like vessel in respect of loss of life or personal injury caused to a person carried in the vessel.

Owner liable for unsafe operation of ship

- (b) a ship that
 - (i) is registered under the law of, or flies the flag of, a country other than Barbados, and

(2) The owner of a ship who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $75 000 or imprisonment for a term of 6 months, or both.

(3) Where a ship is chartered by demise, or is managed, in whole or in part, by a person other than the owner under the terms of a management agreement within the meaning of section 456, a reference to the owner of the ship in subsection (1) or (2) shall be construed as including a reference

- (a) to the charterer under the charter by demise;
- (b) to the manager or person named in the management agreement; or
- (c) if the ship is both chartered and managed, to both the charterer and the manager or person named in the management agreement.

Interest shall be calculated from the due date until actual date of payment.
- (d) Regardless of any allocation stipulated by the Purchaser upon making any payment, the Vendor shall be entitled to apply payments received from the Purchaser in any way that it considers appropriate, including allocation firstly to interest that has accrued in accordance with paragraph 12(c) or costs incurred in accordance with paragraph 12(e).
- (e) The Vendor shall be entitled to recover from the Purchaser any and all costs and/or expenses which may be incurred by the Vendor in recovering or seeking to recover from the Purchaser any overdue or unpaid sums whether or not formal legal steps (including but not limited to the arrest of a Vessel) have been undertaken. Such costs shall be payable by the Purchaser to the Vendor upon demand on a full indemnity basis and may be included in the claim for which a Vessel is arrested.
- (f) Where the Vendor has granted credit to the Purchaser and the Purchaser is in default in payment of any sums due by the Purchaser the Vendor shall be entitled to give immediate notice of the withdrawal of credit, entitling the Vendor to treat all unpaid charges for Goods and Services provided to the Purchaser as due for immediate payment. Interest shall accrue on such sums from the date of the notice, and the Vendor shall be entitled to take immediate legal action to recover the sums due.

Third Schedule - (Cont'd)

- (g) The Purchaser shall insure the Purchaser's Goods for all carriage and storage risks during the period that they are under the custody, care or control of the Vendor on terms that the insurer waives any rights of subrogation or recourse against the Vendor. The Vendor has no obligation or requirement to insure Purchaser's Goods.
- (h) The Vendor shall not be liable for loss or damage to Purchaser's Goods otherwise than by its own negligence or default. Any claims in respect of Purchaser's Goods lost or damaged whilst in the custody of third parties instructed on behalf of the Purchaser by the Vendor shall be made directly to the relevant third party, whose details the Vendor shall provide.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the liability of other members of the conference is the liability that has been, or could be, established in proceedings brought before the same court or tribunal by or on behalf of the person suffering the damage or loss, irrespective of under what law the issue of liability was or would be determined.

(3) In ascertaining the responsibility of a member of a conference for the purposes of subsection (1), regard shall be had not only to the member's part, if any, in the matters giving rise to the proceedings but also to its general involvement in the affairs of the conference, as indicated by its share of the conference trade, the nature of pooling arrangements to which it is a party and the extent to which it contributes to the administrative expenses of the conference.

(4) Subsections (1) to (3) apply to any proceedings in Barbados and to proceedings elsewhere in which the extent of the liability of a member of a conference falls to be determined by reference to the law of Barbados.

(5) Where in proceedings arising out of the Code

(a) judgment is given against a member of a conference in respect of damage or loss caused to any person; and

(b) the extent of the member's liability is not determined by reference to subsections (1) to (3),

the member shall not, if it is sought to enforce the judgment in Barbados, be liable to make good any greater proportion of that damage or loss than if the extent of its liability had been determined by reference to those subsections.

(6) A member of an unincorporated conference against which judgment is given, whether in Barbados or elsewhere, in proceedings arising out of the Code in respect of damage or loss caused by a breach of duty by the conference, shall not, by virtue of section 27(3), be liable to make good any greater proportion of that damage or loss than it would have had to pay if the proceedings had been brought against it and the other members of the conference in respect of a duty owed by all the members of the conference and the extent of its liability had been determined by reference to subsections (1) to (3).

(7) Subsections (5) and (6) shall not affect the enforcement in Barbados of a judgment required to be enforced there by virtue of any enactment on the enforcement of foreign judgments.

Proceedings by or against unincorporated conferences

27.(1) A conference that is not a body corporate may sue and be sued in its own name in proceedings arising out of the Code.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to any proceedings in Barbados and to proceedings elsewhere in which the capacity of a conference to sue and be sued in its own name falls to be determined by reference to the law of Barbados.

(3) A judgment given for or against an unincorporated conference in proceedings brought against the conference in its own name, whether in Barbados or elsewhere, is binding on the members of the conference, and such a judgment is enforceable

(a) against any property held in trust for the purposes of the conference, to the same extent and in the same manner as if the conference were a body corporate; and

(b) against any member of the conference, subject to section 26(5).

(4) Subsection (3) applies to judgments given by a court in Barbados or that are enforceable or entitled to recognition in Barbados.

Restrictions on legal proceedings

28.(1) Legal proceedings arising out of a dispute relating to the application or operation of the Code may be brought in Barbados only in the High Court.

(2) Proceedings arising out of a dispute to be resolved within the framework of the national jurisdiction concerned in accordance with Article 23, paragraph 2 of the Code shall not be entertained by the High Court except as permitted by that paragraph.

(3) The High Court shall stay proceedings before it if, on the application of a party to the proceedings made after entering an appearance but before delivering any pleadings or taking any other steps in the proceedings, it is shown that the proceedings arise out of a dispute to which Article 23, paragraph 4 of the Code applies and that

- (a) the dispute has not been referred to conciliation in accordance with that paragraph or conciliation proceedings are still in progress; or
 - (b) the parties to the dispute have made an agreement on procedures in lieu of conciliation to which Article 25, paragraph 1 applies that is capable of being, or has been, performed.
- (4) The High Court may attach to a stay granted under subsection (3) such conditions as appear to it appropriate, including conditions with respect to the institution or prosecution of conciliation or other proceedings.
- (5) The High Court may remove a stay granted under subsection (3) if any attached condition is not complied with or if at any time it appears to the Court that the circumstances are such that a new application for the stay would not be granted.
- (6) Subsections (3) to (5) apply to an arbitration agreement referred to in Article 25, paragraph 1, in place of section 6 of the Arbitration Act, Cap. 110.

Time for bringing legal proceedings

29. No legal proceedings arising out of a dispute relating to the application or operation of the Code shall be brought in Barbados more than 2 years after the date on which the cause of action accrued or 6 months after the date on which conciliation proceedings relating to the dispute were completed or abandoned, whichever is the later.

Recommendations of conciliators

30.(1) Where a recommendation of conciliators has become binding as between two or more parties to a dispute in accordance with Article 37 of the Code, subject to subsection (2)

- (a) it shall be recognized in Barbados as conclusive as between the parties to which it relates; and

- (b) a party may apply to have the recommendation registered for enforcement in the High Court.
- (2) A recommendation shall not be recognized or enforced under subsection (1) if any of the circumstances mentioned in subparagraphs (a) to (d) of Article 39, paragraph 2 of the Code apply, unless the affected part of the recommendation can be severed in accordance with Article 39, paragraph 3 of the Code and the remainder of the recommendation can be recognized and enforced.
- (3) Where the conciliation and administration costs to be borne by a party to conciliation proceedings in accordance with Article 43, paragraph 1 of the Code have been determined, the person to whom those costs are to be paid may apply to have the determination registered for enforcement in the High Court.
- (4) A party in whose favour an award of costs for vexatious or frivolous proceedings has been made by conciliators under Article 43, paragraph 3 of the Code may apply to have the award registered for enforcement in the High Court.
- (5) The rules of the Court may provide for
 - (a) the manner in which an application is to be made for registration of a recommendation, determination or award under this section;
 - (b) the documents to be produced and the matters to be proved by a person seeking recognition of a recommendation or enforcement of a recommendation, determination or award;
 - (c) the manner in which a recommendation, determination or award is to be registered under this section; and
 - (d) the manner in which, and the conditions subject to which, such a recommendation, determination or award may be enforced.
- (6) Subject to paragraph (5)(d)
 - (a) a recommendation, determination or award registered under this section shall, for the purposes of its enforcement, have the same force and effect;

- (b) the registering court shall have the same powers in relation to its enforcement; and
- (c) the same proceedings for or with respect to its enforcement may be taken, as if the recommendation, determination or award had been a judgment or decree originally given in the High Court and had been entered in that Court.

(7) Where a recommendation, determination or award is registered under this section, the reasonable costs or expenses of, and incidental to, its registration are recoverable as if they were sums recoverable under it, and carry interest as if they were the subject of an order for the payment of costs or expenses made by the High Court on the date of registration.

Purpose

3. The purpose of this Act is to provide the regulatory environment for the carriage of goods wholly or partly by sea, and to support and promote maritime-connected multimodal transport.

Conditions where delay in delivery applies

4. For the purposes of this Act, a delay in delivery is deemed to occur when goods have not been delivered within the agreed time-limit or when, failing an agreed time limit, the actual duration of the carriage having regard to the circumstances of the case and, in the case of partial loads, the time required for making up a complete load in the normal way, exceeds the time it would be reasonable to allow a diligent carrier.

Time limit as evidence of loss of goods

5. For the purposes of this Act, the fact goods have not been delivered within 30 days following the expiry of an agreed time limit or, if there is no agreed time limit, within 60 days from the time when the carrier took over the goods, is conclusive evidence of the loss of the goods, and the person entitled to make a claim may then treat them as lost.

Act binds the State

6. This Act shall bind the State.

Application

7.(1) Except where expressly provided otherwise, this Act applies to contracts of carriage in which the place of receipt and the place of delivery are in different states, and the port of loading of a sea carriage and the port of discharge of the same sea carriage are in different states, if, according to the contract of carriage, any one of the following places is located in a state of the contracting party:

- (a) the place of receipt;
- (b) the port of loading;
- (c) the place of delivery; or
- (d) the port of discharge.

(2) This Act applies without regard to the nationality of the vessel, the carrier, the performing parties, the shipper, the consignee or any other interested parties.

Application of CMI multimodal transport rules

8. Subject to any regulations or orders made under this Act, the multimodal transport rules adopted by the Comité Maritime International shall apply and shall be complied with as far as reasonably practical.

Application of UNCTAD and UNCITRAL multimodal transport rules

9. Subject to any regulations or orders made under this Act

Application of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act

10.(1) The Hague Rules, as implemented by the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, Cap. 307 are applicable only to contracts of carriage covered by a bill of lading or another similar document of title insofar as the document relates to the carriage of goods by sea.

(2) The Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, Cap. 307 shall not apply to multimodal transport contractual agreements, as the Hague Rules as incorporated into that Act do not support multimodal carriage.

Specific exclusions

11.(1) This Act does not apply to the following contracts in liner transportation:

- (a) charter parties; and
- (b) other contracts for the use of a ship or of any space on it.

(2) This Act does not apply to contracts of carriage in non-liner transportation, except when

- (a) there is no charter-party or other contract between the parties for the use of a ship or of any space on it; and
- (b) a transport document or an electronic transport record is issued.

Application to certain parties

- (2) This Act does not apply to the original parties to a contract of carriage that is excluded under section 11.

- (b) the occurrence that caused the loss, damage or delay took place
 - (i) during the period between the arrival of the goods at the port of loading of the ship and their departure from the port of discharge from the ship;
 - (ii) while the maritime performing party had custody of the goods;or

- (iii) at any other time the maritime performing party was participating in the performance of any of the activities contemplated by the contract of carriage.

(2) If a carrier agrees to assume obligations other than those imposed on the carrier under this Act, or agrees that the limits of its liability are higher than the limits specified under this Act, a maritime performing party is not bound by that agreement unless it expressly agrees to accept those obligations or higher limits.

(3) A maritime performing party is liable for the breach of its obligations under this Act caused by the acts or omissions of any person to whom it has entrusted the performance of any of the carrier's obligations under the contract of carriage under the conditions set out in subsection (1).

(4) Nothing in this Act imposes liability on the master or crew of a ship or on an employee of a carrier or of a maritime performing party.

Joint and several liability

- (3) In case of loss of or damage to goods, the carrier is not liable for payment of any compensation beyond what is provided for in section 32(1) and (2), except when the carrier and the shipper have agreed to calculate compensation in a different manner within the limits of Part XVI.

Notice in case of loss, damage or delay

33.(1) A carrier is presumed, in absence of proof to the contrary, to have delivered goods according to their description in the contract particulars, unless notice of loss of or damage to the goods, indicating the general nature of the loss or damage, was given to the carrier or the performing party that delivered the goods before or at the time of the delivery or, if the loss or damage is not apparent, within 7 working days after the delivery of the goods.

(2) A failure to provide a notice referred to in subsection (1) to the carrier or the performing party shall not affect the right to claim compensation for loss of or damage to the goods under this Act or affect the allocation of the burden of proof set out in section 27.

(3) A notice referred to in subsection (1) is not required in respect of loss or damage that is ascertained in a joint inspection of the goods by the person to whom they have been delivered and the carrier or maritime performing party against whom liability is being asserted.

(4) No compensation in respect of delay is payable unless notice of the loss due to the delay was given to the carrier within 21 days of delivery of the goods.

(5) When a notice referred to in this section is given to a performing party who delivered the goods, it has the same effect as if that notice was given to the carrier, and a notice given to the carrier has the same effect as a notice given to a maritime performing party.

(6) In the case of any actual or apprehended loss or damage to goods, the parties to the dispute shall give all reasonable facilities to each other for inspecting and tallying the goods and shall provide access to records and documents relevant to the carriage of the goods.

(5) If a carrier and shipper expressly agreed that the goods would be carried under deck, the carrier is not entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability for any loss of, damage to or delay in the delivery of the goods to the extent that such loss, damage or delay resulted from their carriage on deck.

Carriage preceding or subsequent to sea carriage

36. When loss of or damage to goods, or a circumstance causing a delay in their delivery, occurs during the carrier's period of responsibility but before their loading onto the ship or after their discharge from the ship, the provisions of this Act do not prevail over the provisions of another international instrument that, at the time of the loss, damage or event or circumstance causing delay, if the provisions of the international instrument

- (a) would have applied to all or any of the carrier's activities if the shipper had made a separate and direct contract with the carrier in respect of the particular stage of carriage where the loss of, or damage to goods, or an event or circumstance causing delay in their delivery occurred;
- (b) specifically provide for the carrier's liability, limitation of liability or time for suit; and

(2) Except in respect of loss or damage caused by a breach by the shipper of its obligations pursuant to section 40(2) and section 42, a shipper is relieved of all or part of its liability if the cause, or one of the causes, of the loss or damage is not attributable to its fault or to the fault of any person referred to in section 44.

(3) When a shipper is relieved of part of its liability under this section the shipper is liable only for that part of the loss or damage that is attributable to its fault or to the fault of a person referred to in section 44.

(3) A shipper shall mark or label dangerous goods in accordance with any laws, regulations or other requirements of public authorities that apply during any stage of the intended carriage of the goods.

(4) If the shipper fails to do so, it is liable to the carrier for loss or damage resulting from the failure.

Assumption of shipper's rights and obligations by a documentary shipper

43.(1) A documentary shipper is subject to the obligations and liabilities imposed on the shipper under this Part and under section 65, and is entitled to the shipper's rights and defences provided by this Part and by Part XIII.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect the obligations, liabilities, rights or defences of the shipper.

Liability of the shipper for other persons

44. A shipper is liable for the breach of its obligations under this Act caused by the acts or omissions of any person, including employees, agents and sub-contractors, to whom it has entrusted the performance of any of its obligations, but the shipper is not liable for the acts or omissions of a carrier, or of a performing party acting on behalf of a carrier, to which the shipper has entrusted the performance of its obligations.

 - (b) any additional inspection that the carrier or a performing party performs before issuing the transport document or electronic transport record.

Identity of the carrier

47.(1) If a carrier is identified by name in a contract, any other information in the transport document or electronic transport record relating to the identity of the carrier shall have no effect to the extent that it is inconsistent with that identification.

(2) If no person is identified in a contract as the carrier, as required under section 46(2)(b), but the contract particulars indicate that the goods have been loaded on board a named ship, the registered owner of that ship is presumed to be the carrier, unless it proves that the ship was under a bareboat charter at the time of the carriage and it identifies the bareboat charterer and indicates its address, in which case the bareboat charterer is presumed to be the carrier.

(3) A registered owner may rebut the presumption of being the carrier by identifying the carrier and indicating its address, and a bareboat charterer may rebut a presumption of being the carrier in the same manner.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents a claimant from proving that a person other than a person identified in the contract particulars or under subsection (2) or (3) is the carrier.

(2) An electronic transport record shall include the electronic signature of the carrier or a person acting on its behalf.

(3) An electronic signature shall identify the signatory in relation to the electronic transport record and indicate the carrier's authorization of the electronic transport record.

Deficiencies in the contract particulars

(a) if the contract particulars indicate that the goods have been loaded on board a ship, the date on which all of the goods indicated in the transport document or electronic transport record were loaded on board the ship;
or

(b) if the contract particulars do not indicate that the goods have been loaded on board a ship, the date on which the carrier or a performing party received the goods.

(3) If contract particulars fail to state the apparent order and condition of the goods at the time the carrier or a performing party receives them, the contract particulars are deemed to have stated that the goods were in apparent good order and condition at the time the carrier or performing party received them.

Qualifying the information relating to the goods in the contract particulars

50.(1) A carrier shall qualify the information referred to in section 46(1) to indicate that the carrier does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of the information furnished by the shipper if the carrier has knowledge, or reasonable grounds to believe, that any material statement in the transport document or electronic transport record is false or misleading.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), a carrier may qualify the information referred to in section 46(1), in the circumstances and in the manner set out in sections 46(3) and (4), to indicate that the carrier does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of the information furnished by the shipper.

(3) When goods are not delivered for carriage to a carrier or a performing party in a closed container or vehicle, or when they are delivered in a closed container or vehicle and a carrier or performing party inspects them, the carrier may qualify the information referred to in section 46(1), if

- (a) the carrier had no physically practicable or commercially reasonable means of checking the information furnished by the shipper, in which case it may indicate which information it was unable to check; or
- (b) the carrier has reasonable grounds to believe the information furnished by the shipper to be inaccurate, in which case it may include a clause providing what it reasonably considers to be accurate information.

(4) When goods are delivered for carriage to a carrier or a performing party in a closed container or vehicle

- (a) the carrier may qualify the information referred to in section 46(1) (a), (b) or (c), if
 - (i) the goods inside the container or vehicle have not been inspected by the carrier or a performing party; and

- (ii) neither the carrier nor a performing party otherwise has knowledge of its contents before issuing the transport document or the electronic transport record; and
- (b) the carrier may qualify the information referred to in section 46(1)(d), if
 - (i) neither the carrier nor a performing party weighed the container or vehicle, and the shipper and the carrier had not agreed prior to the shipment that the container or vehicle would be weighed and the weight would be included in the contract particulars; or
 - (ii) there was no physically practicable or commercially reasonable means of checking the weight of the container or vehicle.

Evidentiary effect of the contract particulars

51. Except to the extent that contract particulars have been qualified in the circumstances and in the manner set out in section 50

- (a) a transport document or an electronic transport record is prima facie evidence of the carrier's receipt of the goods as stated in the contract particulars;
- (b) proof to the contrary by the carrier in respect of any contract particulars shall not be admissible, when the contract particulars are included in
 - (i) a negotiable transport document or a negotiable electronic transport record that is transferred to a third party acting in good faith; or
 - (ii) a non-negotiable transport document that indicates that it shall be surrendered in order to obtain delivery of the goods and that is transferred to the consignee acting in good faith; and
- (c) proof to the contrary by the carrier shall not be admissible against a consignee who in good faith has acted in reliance on any of the following contract particulars included in a non-negotiable transport document or a non-negotiable electronic transport record:

- (i) the contract particulars referred to in section 46(1), when the contract particulars are furnished by the carrier;
- (ii) the number, type and identifying numbers of the containers, but not the identifying numbers of the container seals; or
- (iii) the contract particulars referred to in section 46(2).

PART IX

DELIVERY OF GOODS

Obligation to accept delivery

53. When goods have arrived at their destination, a consignee who demands delivery of the goods under the contract of carriage shall accept delivery of the goods at the time, or within the time period, and at the location, agreed in the contract of carriage or, in the absence of such an agreement, at the time and location at which, having regard to the terms of the contract, the customs, usages or practices of the trade and the circumstances of the carriage, delivery could reasonably be expected.

Obligation to acknowledge receipt

54.(1) On the request of a carrier or performing party who delivers the goods, the consignee shall acknowledge receipt of the goods from the carrier or performing party in the manner that is customary at the place of delivery.

(2) A carrier may refuse delivery if the consignee refuses to acknowledge that receipt.

Negotiable transport document or negotiable electronic transport record not issued

55. When no negotiable transport document or negotiable electronic transport record has been issued

- (a) the carrier shall deliver the goods to the consignee at the time and location referred to in section 53;
- (b) if the name and address of the consignee are not referred to in the contract, the controlling party shall, prior to or upon the arrival of the goods at the place of destination, advise the carrier of the consignee's name and address;
- (c) without prejudice to section 58(1), if the goods are not deliverable because
 - (i) the consignee, after having received a notice of arrival, does not, at the time or within the time period referred to in section 53, claim delivery of the goods from the carrier after their arrival at the place of destination;
 - (ii) the carrier refuses delivery because the person claiming to be the consignee does not provide proper identification; or
 - (iii) the carrier is, after reasonable effort, unable to locate the consignee in order to request delivery instructions, the carrier may so advise the controlling party and request instructions in respect of the delivery of the goods;

- (d) a carrier who delivers the goods at the instruction of the controlling party, the shipper or the documentary shipper under paragraph (c) is discharged from any obligation to deliver the goods under the contract of carriage;

- (e) a carrier may refuse delivery if a person claiming to be the consignee does not provide proper identification on the request of the carrier;
- (f) if, after a reasonable effort, a carrier is unable to locate the controlling party, the carrier may so advise the shipper and request instructions in respect of the delivery of the goods; and
- (g) if, after a reasonable effort, the carrier is unable to locate the shipper, the carrier may so advise the documentary shipper and request instructions in respect of the delivery of the goods.

Delivery when a non-negotiable transport document requiring surrender is issued

56. When a non-negotiable transport document has been issued that indicates that it shall be surrendered in order to obtain delivery of the goods

- (a) the carrier shall deliver the goods at the time and location referred to in section 53 to the consignee who provides proper identification, on the request of the carrier and on the surrender of the non-negotiable document;
- (b) the carrier may refuse delivery, if the person claiming to be the consignee fails to provide proper identification on the request of the carrier;
- (c) the carrier shall refuse delivery if the non-negotiable document is not surrendered;
- (d) if more than one original of the non-negotiable document has been issued, the surrender of one original will suffice and the other originals cease to have any effect or validity;
- (e) without prejudice to section 58(1), if the goods are not deliverable because
 - (i) the consignee, after having received a notice of arrival, does not, at the time or within the time period referred to in section 53,

claim delivery of the goods from the carrier after their arrival at the place of destination;

- (ii) the carrier refuses delivery because the person claiming to be the consignee does not provide proper identification or does not surrender the document; or
- (iii) the carrier is, after a reasonable effort, unable to locate the consignee in order to request delivery instructions,

the carrier may so advise the shipper and request instructions in respect of the delivery of the goods or, if after a reasonable effort the carrier is unable to locate the shipper, the carrier may so advise the documentary shipper and request instructions in respect of the delivery of the goods; and

- (f) the carrier that delivers the goods upon instruction of the shipper or the documentary shipper under paragraph (b) is discharged from its obligation to deliver the goods under the contract of carriage, irrespective of whether the non-negotiable transport document has been surrendered.

Delivery when a negotiable transport document or a negotiable electronic transport record is issued

57.(1) When a negotiable transport document or a negotiable electronic transport record has been issued

- (a) the holder of the negotiable transport document or negotiable electronic transport record is entitled to claim delivery of the goods from the carrier after they have arrived at the place of destination, in which event the carrier shall deliver the goods to the holder at the time and location referred to in section 53.
 - (i) upon surrender of the negotiable transport document and, if the holder is the shipper, the consignee or a person to whom the document was duly endorsed, upon the holder providing proper identification; or

- (ii) upon demonstration by the holder, in accordance with the procedures referred to in section 19(1), that it is the holder of the negotiable electronic transport record;
 - (b) the carrier shall refuse delivery if the requirements of paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) are not met;
 - (c) if more than one original of the negotiable transport document has been issued, and the number of originals is stated in that document, the surrender of one original will suffice and the other originals cease to have any effect or validity; and
 - (d) when a negotiable electronic transport record has been used, the record ceases to have any effect or validity upon delivery to the holder in accordance with the procedures required by section 19(1).
- (2) Without prejudice to section 58(1), if a negotiable transport document or the negotiable electronic transport record expressly states that goods may be delivered without the surrender of the transport document or the electronic transport record, the following rules apply:
- (a) if the goods are not deliverable because
 - (i) the holder, after having received a notice of arrival, does not, at the time or within the time period referred to in section 48, claim delivery of the goods from the carrier after their arrival at the place of destination;
 - (ii) the carrier refuses delivery because the person claiming to be a holder does not properly identify himself as the shipper, the consignee or a person to whom the document was duly endorsed; or
 - (iii) the carrier is, after reasonable effort, unable to locate the holder in order to request delivery instructions,

the carrier may so advise the shipper and request instructions in respect of the delivery of the goods or, if after a reasonable effort the carrier is unable to locate the shipper, the carrier may so advise the documentary shipper and request instructions in respect of the delivery of the goods;

- (b) a carrier that delivers goods upon instruction of the shipper or the documentary shipper in accordance with paragraph (a) is discharged from its obligation to deliver the goods under the contract of carriage to the holder, irrespective of whether the negotiable transport document has been surrendered to it or the person claiming delivery under a negotiable electronic transport record has demonstrated, in accordance with the procedures referred to in section 19(1), that he is the holder;
 - (c) the person giving instructions under subsection (2)(a) shall indemnify the carrier against any loss arising from its being held liable to the holder under subsection (2)(e) and the carrier may refuse to follow those instructions if the person fails to provide such adequate security as the carrier may reasonably request;
 - (d) a person who becomes a holder of the negotiable transport document or the negotiable electronic transport record after the carrier has delivered the goods pursuant to contractual or other arrangements acquires rights against the carrier under the contract of carriage, other than the right to claim delivery of the goods, if the contractual or other arrangements were made prior to the delivery of the goods; and
 - (e) notwithstanding paragraphs (b) and (d), a holder that becomes a holder after delivery of the goods, and who did not have, and could not reasonably have had, knowledge of the delivery at the time of becoming a holder, acquires the rights incorporated in the negotiable transport document or negotiable electronic transport record.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2)(e), when a contract states the expected time of arrival of goods, or indicates how to obtain information as to whether the goods have been delivered, it is presumed that the holder at the time of becoming a holder had, or could reasonably have had, knowledge of the delivery of the goods.

Goods remaining undelivered

58.(1) For the purposes of this section, goods are deemed to have remained undelivered only if, after their arrival at the place of destination

- (a) the consignee does not accept delivery of the goods under this Part at the time and location referred to in section 53;
- (b) the controlling party, the holder, the shipper or the documentary shipper cannot be found or does not give the carrier adequate instructions under section 55, 56 or 57;
- (c) the carrier is entitled or required to refuse delivery under section 54, 55, 56 or 57;
- (d) the carrier is not allowed to deliver the goods to the consignee under the laws of the place at which delivery is requested; or
- (e) the goods are otherwise undeliverable by the carrier.

(2) Without prejudice to any other rights that a carrier may have against a shipper, controlling party or consignee, if goods remain undelivered, the carrier may, at the risk and expense of the person entitled to the goods, take such action in respect of the goods as circumstances may reasonably require, including

- (a) storing the goods at any suitable place;
- (b) unpacking or moving the goods; or
- (c) selling or destroying the goods in accordance with the practices, laws of the place where the goods are located at the time.

(3) A carrier may exercise the rights under subsection (2) only after it has given reasonable notice of the intended action under that subsection to

- (a) the person stated in the contract as the person, if any, to be notified of the arrival of the goods at the place of destination; and
- (b) the consignee, the controlling party or the shipper, if known to the carrier, in that order.

(4) If goods are sold under subsection (2)(c), the carrier shall hold the proceeds of the sale for the benefit of the person entitled to the goods, but may deduct any costs incurred by the carrier and any other amounts that are due to the carrier in connection with the carriage of those goods.

(5) A carrier shall not be liable for loss of or damage to goods that occurs during the time that they remain undelivered under this section, unless the claimant proves that the loss or damage resulted from a failure by the carrier to take steps that would have been reasonable in the circumstances to preserve the goods and that the carrier knew, or ought to have known, that the loss or damage to the goods would result from its failure to take such steps.

Retention of goods

59. Nothing in this Act affects a right of the carrier or a performing party that may exist, pursuant to the contract of carriage or the applicable law, to retain the goods to secure the payment of sums due.

PART X

RIGHTS OF THE CONTROLLING PARTY

Exercise and extent of right of control

60.(1) A right of control may be exercised only by a controlling party and is limited to

- (a) the right to give or modify instructions, in respect of the goods, that do not constitute a variation of the contract of carriage;
- (b) the right to obtain delivery of goods at a scheduled port of call or, in respect of inland carriage, at any place en route; and
- (c) the right to replace a consignee by any other person, including the controlling party.

- (2) A right of control exists during the entire period of responsibility of the carrier provided in section 22, and ceases when that period expires.

Identity of the controlling party and transfer of the right of control

- 61.(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4),
- (a) the shipper is the controlling party unless the shipper, when the contract of carriage is concluded, designates a consignee, documentary shipper or other person as the controlling party;
 - (b) the controlling party is entitled to transfer the right of control to another person, which becomes effective with respect to the carrier when it is notified of the transfer by the transferor, at which time the transferee becomes the controlling party; and
 - (c) the controlling party shall properly identify itself when it exercises the right of control.
- (2) When a non-negotiable transport document has been issued that indicates that it shall be surrendered in order to obtain delivery of the goods,
- (a) the shipper is the controlling party and may transfer the right of control to a consignee named in the transport document by transferring the document to that person without endorsement and, if more than one original of the document was issued, by transferring all originals to that person; and
 - (b) in order to exercise its right of control, a controlling party shall produce the document and properly identify itself and, if more than one original of the document was issued, shall produce all originals.
- (3) When a negotiable transport document is issued,
- (a) the holder or, if more than one original of the negotiable transport document is issued, the holder of all originals, is the controlling party;
 - (b) the holder may transfer the right of control by transferring the negotiable transport document to another person in accordance with section 67 and, if more than one original of that document was issued, by transferring all originals to that person; and

- (c) in order to exercise the right of control, the holder shall produce the negotiable transport document to the carrier and
 - (i) if the holder is the shipper, consignee or a person to whom the document was duly endorsed, shall provide proper identification; and
 - (ii) if more than one original of the document was issued, shall produce all originals.
- (4) When a negotiable electronic transport record is issued,
 - (a) the holder is the controlling party;
 - (b) the holder may transfer the right of control to another person by transferring the negotiable electronic transport record in accordance with the procedures referred to in section 19(1); and
 - (c) in order to exercise the right of control, the holder shall demonstrate that it is the holder, in accordance with the procedures referred to in section 19(1).

Carrier's execution of instructions

62.(1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a carrier shall execute the instructions referred to in section 60 if

- (a) the person giving the instructions is entitled to exercise the right of control;
- (b) the instructions can reasonably be executed according to their terms when they reach the carrier; and
- (c) the instructions will not interfere with the normal operations of the carrier, including its delivery practices.

(2) The controlling party shall reimburse the carrier for any reasonable expense that the carrier has incurred and shall indemnify the carrier against loss or damage that the carrier suffers as a result of diligently executing any instruction under this section, including compensation that the carrier becomes liable to pay for loss of or damage to other goods being carried.

(3) The carrier is entitled to obtain security from the controlling party for the amount of any expense, loss or damage that the carrier reasonably expects will arise in connection with the execution of an instruction under this Part, and the carrier may refuse to carry out the instructions if no such security is provided.

(4) The carrier's liability for loss of or damage to the goods or for delay in delivery resulting from its failure to comply with the instructions of the controlling party in breach of its obligation under subsection (1) is subject to sections 27 to 33, and the amount of the compensation payable by the carrier is subject to sections 69 to 71.

Deemed delivery

63. Goods that are delivered under an instruction in accordance with section 60(1) are deemed to be delivered at the place of destination, and Part IX applies to the delivery of those goods.

Variations to the contract of carriage

64.(1) A controlling party is the only person who may agree with the carrier to variations to the contract of carriage other than those referred to in sections 60(1)(b) and (c).

(2) Variations to a contract of carriage, including those referred to in sections 60(1)(b) and (c), shall be stated in a negotiable transport document or in a non-negotiable transport document that requires it be surrendered, incorporated in a negotiable electronic transport record or, upon the request of the controlling party, stated in a non-negotiable transport document or incorporated in a non-negotiable electronic transport record.

(3) If variations are incorporated in a negotiable electronic transport record, the variations shall be signed in accordance with section 48.

Providing additional information, instructions or documents to carrier

65.(1) A controlling party, on the request of a carrier or performing party, shall provide in a timely manner information, instructions or documents relating to the goods not yet provided by the shipper and not otherwise reasonably available to the carrier that the carrier may reasonably need to perform its obligations under the contract of carriage.

(2) If a carrier, after a reasonable effort, is unable to locate the controlling party or the controlling party is unable to provide adequate information, instructions or documents to the carrier, the shipper shall provide them.

(3) If the carrier, after reasonable effort, is unable to locate the shipper, the documentary shipper shall provide the information, instructions or documents.

Variation by agreement

66. The parties to the contract of carriage may vary the effect of section 60(1)(b),(c),(2) or section 62 or restrict or exclude the transferability of the right of control referred to in section 61(1)(b).

PART XI

TRANSFER OF RIGHTS

Issuance of negotiable transport document or negotiable electronic transport record

67.(1) When a negotiable transport document is issued, the holder may transfer the rights incorporated in the document by transferring it to another person

- (a) duly endorsed either to the other person or in blank, if it is an order document; or
- (b) without endorsement, if it is
 - (i) a bearer document or a blank endorsed document; or
 - (ii) a document made out to the order of a named person and the transfer is between the first holder and the named person.

(2) When a negotiable electronic transport record is issued, its holder may transfer the rights incorporated in it, whether it is made out to order or to the order of a named person, by transferring the electronic transport record in accordance with the procedures referred to in section 19(1).

Liability of holder

68.(1) Without prejudice to section 65, a holder that is not the shipper and that does not exercise any right under a contract of carriage does not assume any liability under the contract of carriage solely by reason of being a holder.

(2) A holder that is not the shipper and that exercises any right under the contract of carriage assumes any liabilities imposed on it under the contract of carriage to the extent that those liabilities are incorporated in, or ascertainable from, the negotiable transport document or the negotiable electronic transport record.

- (3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), a holder that is not the shipper does not exercise any right under a contract of carriage solely because
- (a) it agrees with the carrier, under section 20, to replace a negotiable transport document by a negotiable electronic transport record or to replace a negotiable electronic transport record by a negotiable transport document; or
 - (b) it transfers its rights under section 67.

PART XII

LIMITS OF LIABILITY

Limits of liability

- 69.(1) Subject to sections 70 and 71(1), a carrier's liability for breaches of its obligations under this Act is limited to 875 units of account per package or other shipping unit, or 3 units of account per kilogram of the gross weight of the goods that are the subject of the claim or dispute, whichever amount is higher, except when the value of the goods has been declared by the shipper and included in the contract particulars, or when a higher limitation of liability has been agreed upon between the carrier and the shipper.
- (2) When goods are carried in or on a container, pallet or similar article of transport used to consolidate goods, or in or on a vehicle, the packages or shipping units enumerated in the contract particulars as packed in or on that article of transport or vehicle are deemed to be packages or shipping units.
- (3) If goods referred to in subsection (2) are not so enumerated, the goods in or on the article of transport or vehicle are deemed to be one shipping unit.
- (4) The amounts referred to in this Part are to be converted into the national currency of a state according to the value of the currency at the date of judgement or award or the date agreed upon by the parties.

(5) In determining a special drawing right, the value of a national currency of a contracting party that is a member of the International Monetary Fund is to be calculated in accordance with the method of valuation applied by the International Monetary Fund for its operations and transactions in effect at the date in question.

(6) In determining a special drawing right, the value of a national currency of a contracting party that is not a member of the International Monetary Fund is to be calculated in a manner to be determined by that party.

(2) The total amount payable under this section and section 69(1) shall not exceed the limit established under section 69(1) in respect of the total loss of the goods.

Loss of the benefit of limitation of liability

71.(1) Neither the carrier nor a person referred to in section 28 is entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided in section 69, or as provided in the contract of carriage, if the claimant proves that the loss resulting from the breach of the carrier’s obligation under this Act was attributable to a personal act or omission of the person claiming the benefit that was done with the intent to cause the loss or was done recklessly and with knowledge that the loss would probably result.

(2) Neither the carrier nor a person referred to in section 28 is entitled to the benefit of the limitation of liability provided in section 70 if the claimant proves that the delay in delivery resulted from a personal act or omission of the person claiming the benefit that was done with the intent to cause the loss due to delay or that was done recklessly and with knowledge that the loss would probably result.

PART XIII

TIME FOR SUIT

Period of time for suit

72.(1) No judicial or arbitral proceedings in respect of claims or disputes arising from a breach of an obligation under this Act may be instituted after the expiration of a period of 2 years after the day on which the carrier delivered the goods or, where no goods were delivered or only part of the goods were delivered, on the last day on which the goods should have been delivered.

(2) Notwithstanding the expiration of the period set out in subsection (1), a party may rely on its claim as a defence or for the purpose of set-off against a claim asserted by the other party.

Extension of time for suit

73.(1) The period provided in section 72 shall not be subject to suspension or interruption, but the person against whom a claim is made may at any time during the running of the period extend, or further extend, that period by a declaration to the claimant.

(2) A declaration under subsection (1) is deemed to be given where an unequivocal statement is made or published in a written form, including in electronic or digital form or by facsimile, by the party against which the claimant was entitled to access the goods or obtain them by lawful means.

Action for indemnity

74. An action for indemnity by a person held liable may be instituted after the expiration of the period provided in section 72, if the indemnity action is instituted within the later of

- (a) the time allowed by the applicable law in the jurisdiction where the proceedings are instituted; and
- (b) 90 days after the day when the person instituting the action for indemnity has either settled the claim or been served with process in the action against itself, whichever is earlier.

Actions against the person identified as the carrier

75. An action against a bareboat charterer or a person identified as a carrier under section 47(2), may be instituted after the expiration of the period provided in section 72 if the action is instituted within the later of

- (a) the time allowed by the applicable law in the jurisdiction where proceedings are instituted; and
- (b) 90 days after the day when the carrier was identified, or the registered owner or bareboat charterer rebutted the presumption that it is the carrier, under section 47(2).

PART XIV

JURISDICTION

Actions against the carrier

76. Unless the contract of carriage contains an exclusive choice of court agreement or arbitration agreement that complies with section 77 or 82, a claimant has the right to institute judicial proceedings under this Act against a carrier

- (a) in a competent court within the jurisdiction in which one of the following is situated:
 - (i) the domicile of the carrier;
 - (ii) the place of receipt agreed in the contract of carriage;
 - (iii) the place of delivery agreed in the contract of carriage;

Choice of court agreements

77.(1) The jurisdiction of a court chosen in accordance with section 76(b) is exclusive for disputes between the parties to the contract only if the parties so agree and the agreement conferring jurisdiction

- (a) is contained in a volume contract that clearly states the names and addresses of the parties and
 - (i) is individually negotiated; or
 - (ii) contains a prominent statement that there is an exclusive choice of court agreement and specifies the sections of the volume contract containing that agreement; and
- (b) clearly designates the courts of one contracting party or one or more specific courts of one contracting party.

- (2) A person who is not a party to a volume contract is bound by an exclusive choice of court agreement concluded in accordance with subsection (1) only if

No additional bases of jurisdiction

79. Subject to sections 76 and 77, no judicial proceedings under this Act against the carrier or a maritime performing party may be instituted in a court not designated under section 71 or 73.

Arrest and provisional or protective measures

80.(1) Nothing in this Act affects jurisdiction with regard to provisional or protective measures, including arrest.

(2) A court in a state in which a provisional or protective measure was taken does not have jurisdiction to determine the case upon its merits unless

- (a) the requirements of this Part are fulfilled; or
- (b) an international convention that applies in that state so provides.

Consolidation and removal of actions

81.(1) Except when there is an exclusive choice of court agreement that is binding under section 77 or 82, if a single action is brought against both the carrier and the maritime performing party arising out of a single occurrence, the action may be instituted only in a court designated under both sections 76 and 78 or, if there is no such court, in a court designated under section 73(b), if there is such a court.

(2) Except when there is an exclusive choice of court agreement that is binding under section 77 or 82, a carrier or a maritime performing party that institutes an action seeking a declaration of non-liability or any other action that would deprive a person of his right to select the forum under section 76 or 78 shall, at the request of the defendant, withdraw that action once the defendant has chosen a court designated under section 76 or 78 where the action may be recommenced.

Other competent courts

82.(1) After a dispute has arisen, the parties to the dispute may agree to resolve it in any competent court.

(2) A competent court before which a defendant appears without contesting jurisdiction in accordance with the rules of that court has jurisdiction.

Recognition and enforcement

83.(1) A decision made in the state of one contracting party by a court having jurisdiction under this Act shall be recognized and enforced in the state of the other contracting party in accordance with the law of the other contracting party, when both parties have made a declaration in accordance with section 86.

(2) A court may refuse recognition and enforcement based on the grounds for the refusal of recognition and enforcement available under its law.

(3) This Part shall not affect the application of the rules of a regional economic integration organization that is a party to the

(a) Hague Rules;

(b) Hague-Visby Rules;

(c) Hamburg Rules; or

(d) any other regionally or internationally transport rules in force,

as concerns the recognition or enforcement of judgments between member states of the regional economic integration organization, whether adopted prior to or after the entry into force of this Act.

84.(1) Subject to this Part and notwithstanding Part XIV, parties may agree that any dispute that may arise relating to the carriage of goods under this Act shall be referred to arbitration.

- (2) Arbitration proceedings shall, at the option of the person asserting a claim against the carrier, take place at
- (a) a place designated for that purpose in the arbitration agreement; or
 - (b) any other place situated in a state in which any of the following is located:
 - (i) the domicile of the carrier;
 - (ii) the place of receipt agreed in the contract of carriage;
 - (iii) the place of delivery agreed in the contract of carriage;
 - (iv) the port where the goods are initially loaded on a ship; or
 - (v) the port where the goods are finally discharged from a ship.
- (3) The designation of the place of arbitration in an agreement is binding for disputes between the parties to the agreement, if the agreement is contained in a volume contract that clearly states the names and addresses of the parties and
- (a) is individually negotiated; or
 - (b) contains a prominent statement that there is an arbitration agreement and specifies the sections of the volume contract containing the arbitration agreement.
- (4) When an arbitration agreement has been concluded in accordance with subsection (3), a person who is not a party to the volume contract is bound by the designation of the place of arbitration in that agreement only if
- (a) the place of arbitration designated in the agreement is situated in one of the places referred to in subsection (2)(b);
 - (b) the agreement is contained in the transport document or electronic transport record;
 - (c) the person to be bound is given timely and adequate notice of the place of arbitration; and

- (6) Where the parties in a dispute subject to an arbitration clause are members of the Shipping Association of Barbados or another Barbados-based private sector shipping organization, the parties have been unable to agree on an arbitrator and the arbitration clause or agreement does not otherwise provide for the selection or appointment of the arbitrator, either party may request the Shipping Association of Barbados or other private sector shipping organization to appoint an arbitrator, and any arbitrator so selected shall be taken as the arbitrator for the dispute between the parties.

Arbitration agreement in non-liner transportation

85.(1) Nothing in this Act affects the enforceability of an arbitration agreement in a contract of carriage in non-liner transportation to which this Act applies by reason of

- (a) the application of section 12; or
 - (b) the parties' voluntary incorporation of the provisions of this Act in a contract of carriage that would not otherwise be subject to this Act.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an arbitration agreement in a transport document or electronic transport record to which this Act applies by reason of the application of section 12 is subject to this Part, unless the transport document or electronic transport record
- (a) identifies the parties to, and the date of, the charter party or other contract excluded from the application of this Act by reason of the application of section 11; and
 - (b) incorporates by reference the clause in the charter party or other contract that contains the terms of the arbitration agreement.

Agreement to arbitrate after a dispute has arisen

86. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Part and Part XIV, after a dispute has arisen, the parties to the dispute may agree to resolve it by arbitration in any place.

PART XVI

VALIDITY OF CONTRACTUAL TERMS

General provisions

87.(1) Unless otherwise provided in this Act, a term in a contract of carriage is void to the extent that it

- (a) directly or indirectly excludes or limits the obligations of the carrier or a maritime performing party under this Act;
- (b) directly or indirectly excludes or limits the liability of the carrier or a maritime performing party for breach of an obligation under this Act;
- (c) assigns a benefit of insurance of goods in favour of the carrier or a person referred to in section 28;
- (d) directly or indirectly excludes, limits or increases the obligations under this Act of the shipper, consignee, controlling party, holder or documentary shipper; or
- (e) directly or indirectly excludes, limits or increases the liability of the shipper, consignee, controlling party, holder or documentary shipper for breach of any of its obligations under this Act.

Special rules for volume contracts

88.(1) Notwithstanding section 87, a volume contract to which this Act applies may provide for greater or lesser rights, obligations and liabilities as between the carrier and the shipper than those imposed by this Act.

(2) This section applies only when

- (a) the volume contract contains a prominent statement that it derogates from this Act;
- (b) the volume contract is
 - (i) individually negotiated; or
 - (ii) prominently specifies the sections of the volume contract containing the derogations;
- (c) the shipper is given an opportunity, and notice of the opportunity, to conclude a contract of carriage on terms and conditions that comply with this Act without any derogation under subsection (1); and
- (d) the derogation is neither
 - (i) incorporated by reference from another document; nor
 - (ii) included in a contract of adhesion that is not subject to negotiation.

(3) A carrier's public schedule of prices and services, transport document, electronic transport record or similar document is not a volume contract under section 86(1), but a volume contract may incorporate such documents by reference as terms of the contract.

(4) Section 86(1) does not apply to rights and obligations provided in section 24(a) or (b), section 39 or 42, or to liability arising from their breach or any liability arising from an act or omission referred to in section 71.

- (5) The terms of a volume contract that derogate from this Act, if the volume contract satisfies the requirements of subsection (2), apply between the carrier and any person other than the shipper if
- (a) the person received information that prominently states that the volume contract derogates from this Act and gave his express consent to be bound by the derogations; and
 - (b) the consent is not solely set forth in the carrier's public schedule of prices and services, transport document or electronic transport record.
- (6) A party claiming the benefit of a derogation bears the burden of proof that the conditions for derogation have been fulfilled.

Special rules for live animals and certain other goods

- 89.(1) Notwithstanding section 87 and without prejudice to section 88, a contract of carriage may exclude or limit the obligations or the liability of both the carrier and a maritime performing party if
- (a) the goods are live animals; or
 - (b) the character or condition of the goods, or the circumstances and terms and conditions under which the carriage is to be performed, reasonably justify a special agreement, if the contract of carriage is not related to ordinary commercial shipments made in the ordinary course of trade and no negotiable transport document or negotiable electronic transport record is issued for the carriage of the goods.
- (2) Any such exclusion or limitation in relation to live animals will not be effective if the claimant proves that the loss of or damage to the goods, or delay in delivery, resulted from an act or omission of the carrier or of a person referred to in section 28
- (a) done with the intent to cause the loss of or damage to the goods or a loss due to delay; or

- (b) done recklessly and with knowledge that such a loss or damage would probably result.

PART XVII

91. Nothing in this Act affects the application of terms in a contract of carriage or provisions of national law regarding the adjustment of general average.

Passengers luggage

- (c) the Convention on Supplementary Compensation for Nuclear Damage of 12th September, 1997, or any future amendment;
- (d) any future convention in respect of the liability of the operator of a nuclear installation for damage caused by a nuclear incident; or
- (e) national law applicable to the liability for such damage, provided that the law is in all respects as favourable to persons that may suffer damage as either the Paris or Vienna Conventions or the Convention on Supplementary Compensation for Nuclear Damage.

PART XVIII

CARRIAGE OF GOODS BEYOND THE SEA: BY ROAD

Application - Part XVIII

94.(1) The provisions of this Act specific to the carriage of goods by road shall apply to every contract for the carriage of goods by road in vehicles for reward, when the place of taking over of the goods and the place designated for delivery, as specified in the contract, are situated in two different countries, of which at least one is a contracting country, irrespective of the place of residence and the nationality of the parties, and includes carriage carried out by states or by governmental institutions or organizations.

(2) This Part shall not apply to

- (a) carriage performed under the terms of an international postal convention;

- (b) funeral consignments; or
- (c) furniture removal.

Definitions - Part XVIII

“successive carrier” means a carrier

- (a) that is subject to a single contract, entered into between the principal carrier and the shipper; and
- (b) that has accepted goods and a consignment note; and “vehicle” means a motor vehicle, articulated vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer as defined in Article 4 or the Convention on Road Traffic, 1949.

(2) If it is proved that any loss, damage or delay in delivery of the goods that occurs during the carriage by a means of transport other than road was not caused by an act or omission of the carrier by road, but by some event that could have occurred only in the course of and by reason of the carriage by that other means of transport, the liability of the carrier by road shall be determined not by this Act but in the manner in which the liability of the carrier by the other means of transport would have been determined if a contract for the carriage of the goods had been made by the sender with the carrier by the other means of transport alone in accordance with the conditions prescribed by law for the carriage of goods by that means of transport.

(3) If, however, there are no such prescribed conditions, the liability of the carrier by road shall be determined by this Act.

(4) If the carrier by road is also the carrier by the other means of transport, liability shall be determined in accordance with subsections (1) to (3), but as if, in its capacities as carrier by road and as carrier by the other means of transport, it were two separate entities.

- (c) deliver the goods to a consignee other than the consignee indicated in the consignment note.
- (2) A right of the sender under subsection (1) shall cease to exist when the second copy of the consignment note is handed to a consignee or when a consignee exercises a right under section 107(1), from which time onwards the carrier shall obey the orders of the consignee.
- (3) A consignee shall, however, have a right of disposal from the time when the consignment note is drawn up, if the sender makes an entry to that effect in the consignment note.
- (4) If, in exercising a right of disposal, a consignee has ordered the delivery of the goods to another person, that other person shall not be entitled to name other consignees.
- (5) A right of disposal may be exercised if
 - (a) the sender or, in the circumstances referred to in subsection (3), a consignee who wishes to exercise the right produces the first copy of the consignment note on which the new instructions to the carrier have been entered and indemnifies the carrier against all expenses, loss and damage involved in carrying out such instructions;
 - (b) the carrying out of such instructions is possible at the time when the instructions reach the person who is to carry them out and does not interfere with the normal working of the carrier's undertaking or prejudice the senders or consignees of other consignments; and
 - (c) the instructions do not result in a division of the consignment.
- (6) When a carrier cannot carry out the instructions that it receives in the circumstances referred to in subsection (5)(b), the carrier shall immediately notify the person who gave the instructions.

(2) If a loss of goods is established or if goods have not arrived after the expiry of the period provided for in section 0, a consignee may enforce in his own name against the carrier any rights arising from the contract of carriage

(3) A consignee who exercises the rights granted under subsection (1) shall pay the charges shown to be due on the consignment note.

(4) If there is a dispute regarding the charges due, the carrier is not required to deliver the goods unless security has been furnished by the consignee.

Where terms of contract cannot be fulfilled

108.(1) If it is or becomes impossible to carry out the contract in accordance with the terms laid down in the consignment note before the goods reach the place designated for delivery, the carrier shall ask for instructions from the person entitled to dispose of the goods in accordance with section 106.

(2) If the carriage can be carried out under conditions differing from those laid down in the consignment note and if the carrier has been unable to obtain instructions in a reasonable time from the person entitled to dispose of the goods in accordance with section 106, the carrier shall take such steps as seem to it to be in the best interests of the person entitled to dispose of the goods.

Where goods cannot be delivered after arrival

109.(1) Where circumstances prevent the delivery of goods after their arrival at the place designated for delivery, the carrier shall ask the sender for his instructions.

- (2) If a consignee refuses the goods, the sender may dispose of them without being obliged to produce the first copy of the consignment note.
- (3) If a consignee has refused the goods, the consignee may nevertheless require their delivery so long as the carrier has not received instructions to the contrary from the sender.
- (4) When circumstances preventing delivery of the goods arise after the consignee, in the exercise of a right under section 106(3), has given an order for the goods to be delivered to another person, subsections (1) to (3) shall apply as if the consignee were the sender and that other person were the consignee.

Carrier's entitlement to recover cost pertaining to instructions

- 110.(1) A carrier is entitled to recover the cost of a request for instructions and any expenses entailed in carrying out such instructions, unless the expenses were caused by the wrongful act or neglect of the carrier.
- (2) In the circumstances referred to in section 108(1) or section 109, a carrier may immediately unload the goods for account of the person entitled to dispose of them, at which time the carriage is deemed to be at an end.
 - (3) A carrier who does so shall then hold the goods on behalf of the person entitled to dispose of them or entrust them to a third party, in which case the carrier shall not be under any liability except for the exercise of reasonable care in the choice of the third party.
 - (4) In the circumstances referred to in subsections (2) and (3), the charges due under the consignment note and all other expenses shall remain chargeable against the goods.
 - (5) A carrier may sell the goods, without awaiting instructions from a person entitled to dispose of them, if
 - (a) the goods are perishable or their condition warrants it; or
 - (b) when the storage expenses would be out of proportion to the value of the goods, and, after the expiry of a reasonable period, it has not received from the person entitled to dispose of the goods instructions to the contrary that can reasonably be carried out.

(6) If goods have been sold under this section, the proceeds of sale, after deduction of the expenses chargeable against the goods, shall be placed at the disposal of the person entitled to dispose of the goods.

(7) If these charges exceed the proceeds of sale, the carrier is entitled to the difference.

(8) The procedure for the sale of goods shall be determined by the law or custom of the place where the goods are situated.

Liability of the Carrier

Liability of total or partial loss of goods in the carrier's care

111.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a carrier is liable for a total or partial loss of goods and for damage to them that occurred between the time when the carrier took over the goods and the time of delivery, as well as for any delay in delivery.

(2) A carrier is not liable if the loss, damage or delay was caused by

- (a) the wrongful act or neglect of the claimant;
- (b) the instructions of the claimant given otherwise than as the result of a wrongful act or neglect on the part of the carrier;
- (c) an inherent vice of the goods; or
- (d) circumstances that the carrier could not avoid and the consequences of which it was unable to prevent.

(3) A carrier shall not be relieved of liability by reason of

- (b) the wrongful act or neglect of a person from whom the carrier hired the vehicle or of the agents or servants of that person.
- (4) Subject to sections 112(2) to (5), a carrier is relieved of liability when the loss or damage arises from the risks inherent in

 - (b) the lack of, or defective condition of, packing of goods that, by their nature, are liable to wastage or to be damaged when not packed or properly packed;
 - (c) handling, loading, stowage or unloading of the goods by the sender, the consignee or persons acting on behalf of the sender or the consignee;
 - (d) goods whose nature particularly exposes them to total or partial loss or to damage, especially through breakage, rust, decay, desiccation, leakage, normal wastage or the action of moth or vermin;
 - (e) insufficiency or inadequacy of marks or numbers on the packages; or
 - (f) the carriage of livestock.
- (5) A carrier is liable only to the extent that the factors for which it is liable under this section have contributed to the loss, damage or delay.

Burden of proof

112.(1) The burden of proving that a loss, damage or delay was due to one of the causes specified in section 111(2) shall rest upon the carrier.

(2) If a carrier establishes that a loss or damage could be attributed to a risks referred to in section 111(4), it shall, subject to subsection (3), be presumed that it was so caused unless the claimant proves that the loss or damage was not, in fact, attributable either wholly or partly to one of those risks.

(3) The presumption referred to in subsection (2) shall not apply in the circumstances set out in section 111(4)(b), if there has been an abnormal shortage of packing, or a loss of any package.

(4) If the carriage is performed in vehicles specially equipped to protect the goods from the effects of heat, cold, variations in temperature or the humidity of the air, the carrier shall not be entitled to claim the benefit of section 111(4)(a), unless it proves that all steps incumbent on it in the circumstances with respect to the choice, maintenance and use of such equipment were taken and that it complied with any instructions issued to it.

(5) A carrier shall not be entitled to claim the benefit of section 111(4)(f), unless it proves that all steps normally incumbent on it in the circumstances were taken and that it complied with any instructions issued to it.

Recovery of lost goods

113.(1) A claimant may, on receipt of compensation for missing goods, request in writing that he shall be notified immediately if the goods are recovered in the course of the year following the payment of compensation.

(2) A request under subsection (1) shall be acknowledged in writing by the person to whom the claimant made the request.

(3) Within the 30 days following receipt of notification that goods have been recovered, the claimant may require the goods to be delivered to him against payment of the charges shown to be due on the consignment note and the refund of the compensation received, less those charges, but without prejudice to any claim to compensation for delay in delivery under section 116 or 119.

(4) In the absence of a request mentioned in subsection (1) or of any instructions given within the period of 30 days specified in subsection (3), or if the goods are not recovered until more than one year after the payment of compensation, the carrier is entitled to deal with them in accordance with the law of the place where the goods are situated.

Carrier liable to sender if cash on delivery not collected

114. If goods have been delivered to the consignee without collection of a cash-on-delivery charge that should have been collected by the carrier under the terms of the contract of carriage, the carrier is liable to the sender for compensation not exceeding the amount of that charge without prejudice to its right of action against the consignee.

Sender's obligation to inform carrier of dangerous goods

115.(1) When a sender hands goods of a dangerous nature to a carrier, he shall inform the carrier of the exact nature of the danger and indicate, if necessary, the precautions to be taken.

(2) If this information has not been entered in the consignment note, the burden of proving, by some other means, that the carrier knew the exact nature of the danger constituted by the carriage of the goods shall rest upon the sender or the consignee.

(3) Goods of a dangerous nature that were not entered in the consignment note and that the carrier did not know were dangerous may, at any time or place, be unloaded, destroyed or rendered harmless by the carrier without compensation to the sender and the sender is liable for all expenses, loss or damage arising out of their handing over for carriage or of their carriage.

Calculation of compensation for the carrier

116.(1) When a carrier is liable under this Act for compensation in respect of a total or partial loss of goods, the compensation shall, subject to subsection (3), be calculated by reference to the value of the goods at the place and time at which they were accepted for carriage.

(2) The value of goods shall be fixed according to

(a) the commodity exchange price;

(b) if there is no commodity exchange price, the current market price; or

- (7) Compensation higher than that provided by this section may be claimed only where the value of the goods or a special interest in delivery has been declared in accordance with sections 117 and 119.

Payment of surcharged for goods exceeding limit

117. A sender may, on payment of a surcharge to be agreed upon, declare in the consignment note a value for the goods exceeding the limit laid down in section 116(3), in which case the amount of the declared value shall be substituted for that limit.

Carrier’s liability where goods have been diminished in value

118.(1) In the case of damage to goods, the carrier is liable for the amount by which the goods have diminished in value, calculated by reference to the value of the goods fixed in accordance with sections 116(1), (2) and (5).

- (2) Compensation under subsection (1) may not, however, exceed
- (a) if the whole consignment has been damaged, the amount payable in the case of a total loss; and
 - (b) if only part of the consignment has been damaged, the amount payable in the case of a loss of that part.

Sender's obligation on payment of a surcharge in case of loss or damage

119.(1) A sender may, on payment of a surcharge to be agreed upon, fix the amount of a special interest in delivery in the case of loss of or damage to the goods where the agreed time-limit for delivery is exceeded, by entering that amount in the consignment note.

(2) If a declaration of a special interest in delivery has been made, compensation for the loss or damage proved due to delay may be claimed, up to the total amount of the interest declared, in addition to the compensation provided for in sections 116, 117, and 118.

Claimant's right to claim interest on compensation payable 120.(1) A claimant is entitled to claim interest on compensation payable, calculated at 5 per cent per annum, accruing from the date on which the claim was sent in writing to the carrier or, if no such claim has been made, from the date on which legal proceedings were instituted.

(2) When the amounts on which the calculation of the compensation is based are not expressed in the currency of the country in which payment is claimed, conversion shall be at the rate of exchange applicable on the day and at the place of payment of compensation.

Circumstances in which carrier can exclude liability

121.(1) Where, under the applicable law, a loss, damage or delay arising out of carriage under this Act gives rise to an extra-contractual claim, the carrier may avail itself of the provisions of this Act that exclude its liability or fix or limit the compensation due.

(2) Where an extra-contractual liability for loss, damage or delay of a person for whom the carrier is responsible under the terms of section 97 is in issue, that person may avail himself of the provisions of this Act that exclude the liability of the carrier or that fix or limit the compensation due.

Circumstances in which carrier cannot exclude or limit liability

122.(1) A carrier shall not be entitled to avail itself of the provisions of this Act that exclude or limit its liability or that shift the burden of proof, if the damage was caused by its wilful misconduct or by a default on its part.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to wilful misconduct or default committed by an agent or servant of the carrier, or by any other persons of whose services it makes use of for the performance of the carriage, when that agent, servant or other person is acting within the scope of his employment.

(3) An agent, servant or other person referred to in subsection (2) shall not be entitled to an exclusion or limitation of liability, or a shift in the burden of proof, referred to in subsection (1).

Claims and Actions

Consignee's obligation to check goods

123.(1) If a consignee takes delivery of goods without duly checking their condition with the carrier, or without sending the carrier a reservation giving a general indication of loss or damage, not later than at the time of delivery, in the case of apparent loss or damage, or within 7 days of delivery in the case of loss or damage that is not apparent, the fact of taking delivery shall be prima facie evidence that the consignee has received the goods in the condition described in the consignment note.

- (2) Where the loss or damage is not apparent, the reservation referred to in subsection (1) shall be made in writing.
- (3) If the condition of the goods has been duly checked by the consignee and the carrier, evidence contradicting the result of this check shall be admissible only if the loss or damage is not apparent and if the consignee has duly sent reservations in writing to the carrier within 7 days from the date of checking.
- (4) No compensation is payable for a delay in delivery unless a reservation has been sent in writing to the carrier within 21 days from the time that the goods were placed at the disposal of the consignee.
- (5) In calculating the time limits provided for in this Part, the date of delivery, the date of checking or the date when the goods were placed at the disposal of the consignee, as the case may be, shall not be included.
- (6) The carrier and the consignee shall give each other every reasonable facility for making the required investigations and checks.

Legal proceedings arising out of carriage

124.(1) In legal proceedings arising out of carriage subject to this Act, the plaintiff may bring an action only in a court or tribunal of a contracting country designated by agreement between the parties or in a court or tribunal of a country within whose territory

- (a) the defendant is ordinarily resident, or has his principal place of business;
 - (b) the branch or agency through which the contract of carriage was made; or
 - (c) the place where the goods were taken over by the carrier or designated for delivery is situated.
- (2) Where in respect of a claim referred to in subsection (1) an action is pending before a court or tribunal referred to in that subsection, or where in respect of such a claim a judgement has been entered by such a court or tribunal, no new action shall be started between the same parties on the same grounds unless the judgement of the court or tribunal before which the first action was brought is not enforceable in the country in which the fresh proceedings are brought.

(3) When a judgement entered by a court or tribunal of a contracting country in an action referred to in subsection (1) has become enforceable in that country, it shall also become enforceable in each of the other states of the contracting parties, as soon as the formalities required in the country concerned have been complied with.

(4) The formalities referred to in subsection (3) shall not permit the merits of the case to be re-opened.

(5) Subsection (3) applies to judgements after trial, judgements by default, settlements confirmed by an order of the court and costs against a plaintiff who wholly or partly fails in his action, but does not apply to interim judgements or to awards of damages.

(6) Security for costs shall not be required, in proceedings arising out of carriage under this Act, from nationals of contracting countries who are resident or have their place of business in one of those countries.

Period of limitation for an action arising out of carriage

125.(1) The period of limitation for an action arising out of carriage under this Act shall be one year.

(2) Nevertheless, in the case of wilful misconduct, the period of limitation shall be 3 years.

(3) The period of limitation shall begin to run

- (a) in the case of a partial loss or damage to goods, or a delay in delivery, from the date of delivery;
- (b) in the case of a total loss, 30 days after the expiry of the agreed time limit or, where there is no agreed time limit, 60 days from the date on which the goods were taken over by the carrier; and

- (c) in all other cases, 3 months after the making of the contract of carriage.
- (4) A written claim shall suspend the period of limitation until the date that the carrier rejects the claim by notification in writing and returns the documents attached to it.
- (5) If a part of the claim is admitted, the period of limitation shall start to run again only in respect of the part of the claim that still in dispute.
- (6) The burden of proof of the receipt of a claim, of a reply and of the return of documents shall rest with the party relying upon these facts.
- (7) The running of a period of limitation shall not be suspended by further claims having the same object.
- (8) Subject to subsection (2), the extension of a period of limitation and the fresh accrual of rights of action shall be governed by the law of the court or tribunal seized of the case.
- (9) A right of action that has become barred by the lapse of time may not be exercised by way of a counter-claim or set-off.

Clause conferring competence within the contract of carriage

126. A contract of carriage may contain a clause conferring competence on an arbitration tribunal, if the clause provides that the tribunal shall apply this Act.

Carriage Performed by successive Carriers

Single contract performed by successive road carriers

127. If carriage governed by a single contract is performed by successive road carriers

- (a) each of them shall be responsible for the performance of the whole operation; and
- (b) the second carrier and each succeeding carrier is deemed to become a party to the contract of carriage, according to the terms of the consignment note, by reason of acceptance of the goods and the consignment note.

Obligation of carrier accepting goods from a previous carrier

128.(1) A carrier that accepts the goods from a previous carrier shall give the latter a dated and signed receipt.

(2) The carrier accepting goods shall enter its name and address on the second copy of the consignment note.

(3) The carrier shall enter on the second copy of the consignment note and on the receipt any reservations provided for in section 102(2).

(4) Section 103 shall apply to the relations between successive carriers.

Counter-claim concerning claim on the same contract of carriage

129.(1) Except in the case of a counter-claim or a set-off raised in an action concerning a claim based on the same contract of carriage, legal proceedings in respect of liability for loss, damage or delay may be brought only against the first carrier, the last carrier or the carrier who was performing that portion of the carriage during which the event causing the loss, damage or delay occurred.

(2) An action may nonetheless be brought at the same time against more than one of the carriers referred to in subsection (1).

Carrier entitled to recover compensation

130. A carrier who has paid compensation under this Act is entitled to recover that compensation, together with interest and all costs and expenses incurred by reason of the claim, from the other carriers who have taken part in the carriage, but

- (a) only the carrier responsible for the loss or damage is liable to pay the compensation, interest, costs and expenses, whether paid by itself or by another carrier;

- (b) when the loss or damage has been caused by the action of two or more carriers, each of them shall pay an amount proportionate to its share of liability or, if it is impossible to apportion the liability, each carrier is liable in proportion to the share of the payment for the carriage that is due to it; and
- (c) if it cannot be ascertained to which carriers liability is attributable for the loss or damage, the amount of the compensation shall be apportioned between all the carriers in proportion to the share of the payment for the carriage that is due to each of them.

Where carrier is insolvent

131. If one of the carriers is insolvent, the share of the compensation due from it and unpaid by it shall be divided among the other carriers in proportion to the share of the payment for the carriage due to them.

Where carrier is not entitled to dispute validity of payment

132.(1) No carrier against whom a claim is made under section 130 or section 131 is entitled to dispute the validity of the payment made by the carrier making the claim, if the amount of the compensation was determined by a judicial authority after the carrier against whom the claim was made was given due notice of the proceedings and afforded an opportunity to enter an appearance.

(2) A carrier may enforce its right of recovery by making a claim before a competent court or tribunal of the country in which

- (a) one of the carriers concerned is ordinarily resident;
- (b) the carrier has its principal place of business; or
- (c) the branch or agency through which the contract of carriage was made is situated.

(3) All the carriers concerned may be made defendants in a single action.

(4) Sections 119(3) and (4), shall apply to judgements entered in proceedings referred to in sections 130 and 131.

(5) Section 120 shall apply to claims between carriers, though the period of limitation shall begin to run on the date of the final judicial decision fixing the amount of compensation payable under this Act or, if there is no such judicial decision, from the date of payment.

Carriers freedom to agree

133. Carriers may agree among themselves on rights and obligations other than those laid down in sections 130 and 131.

Nullity of Stipulations Contrary to the Act

Where provisions are void

134.(1) Subject to section 133, any stipulation in a contract of carriage that would directly or indirectly derogate from the provisions of this Act, including a benefit-of-insurance clause in favour of the carrier or any other similar clause, or any clause shifting the burden of proof, is void.

(2) The nullity of a stipulation under subsection (1) does not nullify any other provisions of the contract.

Agency

138.(1) A shipper on entering into a contract of carriage does so not only on his own behalf but also as agent of the consignee, and warrants to the carrier that he has authority to do so.

(2) Subsection (1) applies only if it is necessary by the law applicable to the contract of carriage to enable the consignee to sue and be sued on it.

(3) A consignee shall be under no greater liability under a contract of carriage than he would have been had the contract been covered by a bill of lading or similar document of title.

Rights and responsibilities

139.(1) A contract of carriage shall be subject to the International Carriage of Goods by Sea Rules, any other international convention, or a law of Barbados that is applicable to it, or that would have been applicable to it if the contract of carriage had been covered by a bill of lading or similar document of title, notwithstanding any inconsistent provision in the contract of carriage.

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), a contract of carriage is governed by
- (a) unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the carrier's standard terms and conditions for the trade, if any, including any terms and conditions relating to the non-sea part of the carriage; and
 - (b) any other terms and conditions agreed by the parties.
- (3) In the event of an inconsistency between the terms and conditions referred to in paragraphs (2)(b) and (c) and the Comité Maritime International Uniform Rules for Seaway Bills, the Rules shall prevail.

Description of the goods

140.(1) A shipper warrants the accuracy of the particulars furnished by him relating to the goods, and shall indemnify the carrier against any loss, damage or expense resulting from any inaccuracy.

- (2) In the absence of a reservation by the carrier, a statement in a sea waybill or similar document as to the quantity or condition of the goods shall
- (a) as between the carrier and the shipper, be prima facie evidence of receipt of the goods as so stated; and
 - (b) as between the carrier and the consignee, be conclusive evidence of receipt of the goods as so stated, so long as the consignee has acted in good faith.

Right of control

141.(1) Unless a shipper has exercised an option under subsection (3), he shall be the only party entitled to give the carrier instructions in relation to the contract of carriage.

(2) Unless prohibited by the applicable law, the shipper is entitled to change the name of the consignee at any time before the consignee claims delivery of the goods after their arrival at destination, if the shipper gives the carrier reasonable notice in writing, or by some other means acceptable to the carrier, and undertakes to indemnify the carrier against any additional expense caused by the change.

(3) The shipper shall have the option, to be exercised not later than the time of receipt of the goods by the carrier, to transfer the right of control to the consignee.

(4) The exercise of such an option shall be noted on the sea waybill or similar document, if any.

(5) Where such an option has been exercised, the consignee shall have the rights referred to in subsection (1) and the shipper shall cease to have those rights.

Delivery

142.(1) A carrier shall deliver goods to the consignee upon production of proper identification.

(2) A carrier is under no liability for wrong delivery if it can prove that it has exercised reasonable care to ascertain that the party claiming to be the consignee is in fact that party.

Validity

143. If anything contained in the Comité Maritime International Uniform Rules for Seaway Bills, or in any provisions incorporated into the contract of carriage by virtue of Rule 4 of those Rules, is inconsistent with any other international convention or the laws of Barbados applicable to the contract of carriage, the Comité Maritime International Uniform Rules or those provisions, as the case may be, shall not apply to the extent of the inconsistency.
